FISCAL REVISION BECOMES ISSUE

M.P.'s Choosing Phrases for Explaining Reversion of Tories to Protection.

New York, June 21 .- The Tribune's London correspondent wires as follows: Mr. Chamberlain's policy not merely holds the field, but is gaining ground-This would not be true if Mr. Balfour were not heartily in accord with it. The two statesmen are working together and understand each other. They have succeeded in keeping the ministry together by a silken ribbon, ornamented with interrogation marks, and since no pressure is put upon anybody it holds well enough. There will be no inquiry respecting the fiscal policy, but as soon as the Unionist free traders are shown to be in the minority the government will be reorganized and Mr. Chamberlain will become Chancellor of the Exchequer.

As long as it was suspected that Mr. Balfour was Mr. Chamberlain's dupe and would ultimately be displaced by the stronger statesman fiscal revision was under a cloud, but now that it is an open secret that Mr. Balfour is fully committed to the new policy and intends to remain Prime Minister and

All the signs point to the reopening of the tariff issue all along the line. The Cobden Club has been restored to life and is scattering in the home field tracts originally written for the conversion of America and the Philistine world; members of parliament are reviving reminiscences of political economy and picking and choosing phrases for explaining the reversion of the Tories to protection. So passeth away Mr. Cobden's forecast of the free trade millennium, and Old England coming to her senses profits by the economic experience of America and the remainder of Christendom.

John H. McMillan of Gore Bay sued the Orillia Export Lumber Company for $308.68, and the company counterclaimed for $800. The trouble arose over a consignment of lumber, and was heard by Mr. Justice Street at Sault Ste- Marie in December last, when both claims were dismissed, excepting an amount of $184.95, due by the company to James Hinden, who assigned it to the Manutin. The derendants paid this amount into the bank to the credit of amount into the bank to the credit of minden, and claimed they had not received notice of the assignment. The trial judge in his decision given on Suurday upnoids this contention and dismisses this portion of the claim also. It is without prejudice to the plaintiff to bring another suit for the $154.93, if he should find it necessary to recover the money.

His wife to whom he had been married 40 wite to whom he had been married 40 years, predeceased him, and there were no onspring from the union. In 1884 ne had made a will leaving his property to a stepdaughter, Miss Jamieson, but on Sept. 2 last he had another will prepared by Dr. Grant of Woodville. By this testament, he bequeathed his farm and most of his other property to John D. McFayden, known as John Gooseleg, who was instructed to pay $100 to the Presbyterian Church at Glenarm. Three sisters of deceased, Mary and Sarah McFayden and Flora McLean disputed the validity of the last will, and Mr. Justice MacMahon tried the case at Lindsay last week. By his decision handed out on Saturday, the will is declared valid, and to have been made without any undue influence on the part of the legatee.

WORKED A MIRACLE.

DR. McLaughlin,
Dear Sir: I have to thank you very much for your Electric Belt. This time last year
I was not able to do any work on my large farm; now I am able to turn out and guide the men. I was so overcome with heart disease that I could not walk. I am seventyfour on the 28th of this month, and you know at my time of life you cannot make me over again, but your Belt has worked a miracle on me. I had faith in your treatment from the first, and believed all you said to me about my case, and I assure you, sir, I will do my best to nake known, with pen and tongue, the good quality of your electrical treatment. If you like you can make use of my name before the public. I am your obedient servant, JAMES JOHNSTON, J.P., Ottawa City Postoffice.

I believe in finding the cause of all such troubles and removing it. If it is in the stomach I restore the power there; if in the nerve system I build up the nerve force; in the kidneys, in the blood or the organs of generation, I find the cause and supply to the body the needed help, and after I have removed the cause nature will cure the disease.

Too many physicians make a mistake of treating the condition and overlooking the cause. If a heart is weak they stimulate it with drugs when they ought to devote their treatment to building up the stomach, which is the real cause of the heart failure. Every time the heart is stimulated by a drug its vitality is strained, and one day it will simply stop short.

Tell me where you live and I will send you the name of a Windsor, June 21.—What is believed to be the latest episode in a family feud extending back for years in Tecumseh Village resulted in an information laid before Magistrate Cheyne in Windsor by James W. Hawkins against Eva St. Louis, daughter of Joseph St. Louis, a neighbor, living on the Tecumseh road six and a half miles from Windsor. She is charged with feeding paris green to cattle belonging to the former.

A warrant was issued at noon by Chief Willis and placed in the hands of a constable. The cattle showed signs of illness, and before the arrival of a veterinary surgeon, suffered convulsions, altho none died. Later, Hawkins and his own family, consisting of his son, two daughters and wife, were selzed with cramps. Severatismiles in Walkerville who bought milk from Hawkins also experienced the same sickness. The constable and Hawkins suspected that poison had been placed within reach of the cattle, and upon investigation found quantities of salt mixed with paris green spread along the roadside between the two farms.

FIERCE FIGHT IN MONTREAL.

Montreal, June 20 .- As the result of a fierce fight between a crowd of white and colored men on the road about half way between Montreal and Back River to-day, several of the combatants are now in a critical condition, and two or three of them may die. The fight lasted for fully half an hour, and knives and bludgeons were freely used. The white men seem to have got the worst of the battle, as two of them bad to be taken to the hospital, and two others to their homes on St. Denis-street. William Dilaire of Park-avenue, was taken to the Royal Victoria Hospital, where no fewer than eighteen stitches had to be put in one of the most severe of the cuts. The other white man, Lazone Poulin, who was also taken to the hospital, has a serious cut on the head, inflicted probably with a bludgeon of a piece of a fence rail. In the battle on the road, knives, bludgeons in the shape of fence rails; in fact, everything the combatants could lay their hands on, were used. None of the colored men were seriously injured. way between Montreal and Back River
