A GRAFTER PUNISHED

Cook County, Illinois, Sends a Big Politician to Prison.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—John A. Cooke was found guilty last night of conspiracy to defraud Cook County while clerk of the circuit court. His punishment was fixed at indeterminate imprisonment in the penitentiary and a fine of $2,000. The jury returned its verdict at 8:30 o'clock last night in Judge Smith's court.

the second was unanimous for the the maximum punishment under

The conviction of Cooke marks second historic step in the year 1906 in Cook County politics. He is the second "big" politician to be sentenced to the penitentiary within three months for grafting. His prosecution followed close upon the heels of the conviction of John A. Linn, who had succeeded him in the same office and who is now serving his sentence in the prison at Joliet. The "graft" industry in county offices thus seems to have suffered a check. Credit for the conviction of the two officials is given jointly to the state's attorney's office and the Citizens' Asso-
