production, adapted from the London and New York stage in CAPTAIN BRUCE BAIRNSFATHER'S famous photo-success

The Better 'OLE

If you can find a better 'ole than the Majestic, go to it.

WHAT THE RETURNED MEN OF TORONTO SAY OF "THE BETTER 'OLE," NOW PLAYING TO CAPACITY BUSINESS AT THE ALLEN

- A CORPORAL: The most realistic version of life at the front that I have ever seen.
- A SERGEANT: A darn good picture. The best I ever saw.
- A GUNNER: Great! The last word in war plays, and I have seen nearly all war pictures produced.
- A NURSING SISTER: Wonderful! It will give the public an inside view of the life of our wonderful men. Advise every one to see it.
- A PRIVATE: Seen it twice, want to see it again. This is the picture for anyone who has a relative at the front.
- A PRIVATE: Liked it for many reasons better than any picture I have ever seen. It is not a gloom-dispenser, but a gloom-chaser. This is the real dog. No camouflage to this picture. One of the best pictures from start to finish. Full of pep. The greatest ever.

"THE BETTER 'OLE" is a different story of the great war—there are no thrilling battle scenes, no hand-to-hand fighting, no artillery firing—you see the daily routine life of the lads who fought so gallantly for victory.

The secret of the story's wonderful fascination is its close and true analysis of the spirit which animates the men in the trenches. That spirit of fun which keeps them cheerful under conditions almost indescribable.
