stimates his loss at $15,000, partly covered by insurance, but much damage was caused by smoke to the other parts of the building and to the stores adjoining. Other occupants of the building who suffered considerable loss are: Drs. Cowan and Thompson, dentists, the Hamilton Dental Co., and John S. Gordon, artist. H. E. Hawkins, druggist, who had just completed moving a large stock into the store adjoining, places his loss at $3000. The firemen were kept bus, until about 9 o'clock and many of them were overcome with smoke. Fireman James Wheaton of the Bay-street station had to be taken to Dr. Balfe's office in an auto. Other firemen who were also overcome and had to be dragged out were: Captain walsh and Firemen Guerin, McIntyre, Stinson T. Wilson and Brittain. Walsh and Firemen Guerin, McIntyre, Stinson, T. No License Transfers. Altho the license commissioners is-sued a list of licenseholders that would be cut off at the end of three months, and others who would be given three months in which to transfer their li-censes, not one license has been transferred as yet, and the three months will expire at the end of July. It is said that the commissioners will re-vise the list, and make some changes. There were ten names on the list. David Melville, Stony Creek, who bit Constable Duffy's thumb, was fined $20. Thomas A. Coates was acquitted of the charge of kidnapping Harry Kempf's child. Peter E. A. Miller, Bertle Town-

Passengers Enjoyed It. Last Wednesday the Hamilton Steamboat Company engaged the 91st Highlander Band to play on the afternoon trips of the steamer Modjeska. The company has since been besieged with many requests to have the concerts continued. This week, an exceptional treat is in store for the lowers of these delightful outings, the company having engaged Canada's famous 13th Battalion Band to play next Wednesday. The 13th will play on the Modjeska's 2.15 p.m. trip out of Hamilton and the 5.30 Toronto. The company will have the 50 cent fare in force for the return
