Note and Comment

While there's not much to tell about the cuitars these days, don't think that, with about as good ice as any time in the season, the club members are not active. The space on all the floors is pretty well occupied in the afternoons, and full to overflowing in the evenings.

If the frost holds out, the annual club magelics, President v. Vice-President, will be builted off with despatch on Christman Dr. And then there's the city single-link chempionship, that starts Jan. 14, entries closing Jan. 11. Several crack quartets have already been organized, and all look rufficiently strong to land the trophy.

Joe Wright, one of the greatest of Toronto's amateurs who ever pulied an oar, feathered a scull, kicked the piggkin larded out swings and jolts, or walkoped out curves over the left field fence, will put in an active winter in athletics, having just joined the Lakeview Curling Club. Joe will look great in a Tam of Shahter, and should prove a fine acquisition to the Harrison-street brithers of the keson.

Sam McBride, president of the Toronto Driving Club, has thoroly recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia, and is now actively working in his own interests for election as alterman in No. 3 Ward. Sam deserves the seat.

The elevation of John Lynch to the head of the National Basebali League, and his magner of glorifying the deeds of good untires, may result in those officials assuming an air of arrogance that even next season's downtrodden fans may not tolerate.

A New York Irishman sizes up the ablive of the latest recruit to Jim Jeffries' trabing camp about correct. He says:

"My old County Galway friend, James J. Corbett, who was knocked out twice by Jim Jeffries and 'pasted in the plex' by Old Man Fitzsiumors, is back from that dear Europe with a copious line of dope on how he is going to fixup Joff for speed, standing, judgment of distance and footwork, and blime me if I know wot else. Hot strift that from Corbett.

"But where on earth does he come in with any goods to sell to-day to a fighter seeking heavy weight championehip honors?

"In his last two scraps the unctuous pospadour person was as slow as a Swiss water. Whatever was left to him at all wal his headwork and his feinting, both of which were overstrained when Jeff got to him.

"Now, I'd hate like the deuce to take lessons from anybody that I made a socker of twice in succession. You may learn rueful experiences from fediures in the prize ring, but you can't learn many new wrinkles."

The Cobourg Hockey Club has reorganized for the coming season with the following officers: Hon. president, A. R. Dundas; hon. first vice-president, C. A. Minaker; hon. second vice-president, A. L. Jex; hon. third vice-president, C. A. Manson; president, Thomas McIntosh; vice-president, J. L. Crossin; second vice-president, E. W. Hargraft; secretary, Harold Snelgrove; treasurer, Percy Clarke; marager, George Stott; executive committee, A. Bentley, C. J. Webster, Frank Guy, Kent Payne. Cobourg will have an intermediate team this season. They have been placed in group 2, section A.

Port Hope intermediates reorganized on Saturday and have asked permission to enter group No. 2 intermediate series, O. H.A. If Cobourg, Oshawa and Whitby are agreeable, Port Hope will be allotted dates, tho it would be a good lesson to keep the "late thinkers" out for a season.

The Cobcurg Hockey Club asked the O.H.A. yesterday for permission to play their intermediate O.H.A. games at Port Hope, having failed to come to reasonable terms with the management of the Cobourg rink. The request will likely be granted.

Winnipeg Not Coming.
WINNIPEG. Dec. 20—(Special.)—The trip of the Winnipeg Shamrooks to Ottawa in search of the Staniey Cup has been abandoned. This statement was given our to-day by officials of the club. The reason assigned is that several of the best players have refused to go, and there is not sufficient good material to fill their places.
