HON. S. H. BLAKE REPLIES TO BOARD OF GOVERNORS

Hopes the Critics Will Be Cast Out, But is Not Over-Sanguine as to the Outcome.

Hon. Sam Blake, the invincible pamphleteer, has once more girded himself to the fray.

Mr. Blake summarizes the report as follows: 1.—The calendar erroneously provides for teaching in University College which it should not give.

2.—The calendar must be altered so as to remove this ground of complaint; 3.—The books of reference of the class complained of must not be used or appear in connection with University College instruction;

4.—In its teaching University College has "encroached on the domain of theology"; 5.—Teachers "must not trespass upon the field of theology";

6.—And "that the board of governors, thru the president, direct them accordingly"; 7.—That where the teaching is "opposed to the orthodox position connected with the Bible," neither your committee nor the board of governors has any right to interfere with this.

Mr. Blake reads in the findings of the committee the almost complete justification of his charges. This leads him to express the plonious hope that the unclear thing will be cast out, but there is an undertone of skepticism in the amplification of his theme, which would lead one to suspect that the doughty champion of the Bible is not over-sanguine as to the outcome.

In "The narrow meaning attached to the word 'theology' by the committee," Mr. Blake sees a call to "persistent watchfulness as to the teachers that may be appointed and as to the instruction given by them."

"We see only too plainly and painfully," he continues, "where the freedom as to 'discussions of the books and narratives of the Bible' has already led University College."

Mr. Blake does not argue the merits, or rather demerits, of higher criticism. He takes that for granted. "I take it," he says, "that where the people of any community are asked to join in an educational institution based on the omission of teaching in religious or theological knowledge, this embraces as much the agreement that this subject shall not be attacked or depreciated in the minds of their pupils as that it shall not be favorably presented, urged or forwarded."

And one continues: "It is to my mind better that it should be left there the sport of the university higher critic and of his public school pupils following, than awake, thus creating an atmosphere in which it is dangerous for a Christian pupil to dwell."

ONTARIO ALLIANCE WILL INTERFERE WITH GOVERNMENT

Consider Time Opportune for "Immediate Enactment of Further Stringent Legislation."

A meeting of the Ontario provincial executive committee of the Dominion Alliance, held at the Confederation Life Building yesterday, was the arrangements for the annual convention in Toronto on Feb. 15 and 16.

The executive committee decided that it was an opportune time to press now for the removal of the three-fifths clause, but also for the immediate enactment of further stringent restrictive legislation. It was decided to devote the morning session of the provincial convention, on Wednesday, Feb. 16, to a few days of conference to be followed by a round table conference on the general subject of: "How to Conduct a Local Option Campaign," dealing with preliminary, petitioning, and our public voters' lists, public meetings, literature and publicity, finances, the canvass and getting out the vote. This will be followed by an "Experiencing Meeting," which representatives from Orillia, Brantford, Collingwood, Galt, Stratford, Newmarket and other places will give a five-minute talk upon the campaign in their respective places.

Among those present at the meeting of the executive were: Joseph Gibson, Mrs. A. C. Rutherford, Mrs. Vance, Rev. A. P. Brace, Theron Gibson, Rev. Dr. H. H. Abraham, Rev. Dr. E. E. Newwood, Hector Lamont, W. H. Orr, Henry Moyle, C. G. Scott, L. C. Peake, J. A. Austin, W. J. Armstrong, Rev. W. Kettlewell, James Vokes, M. Bredin, Rev. J. B. Potter, Rev. R. M. Hamilton, F. W. Duggan and Rev. B. H. Spence.

DUEL STORY REALLY UNTRUE

Answer to Revived Rumors—The "Woman in the Case."

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The World publishes the following London cable: Another rumour that Earl Percy's recent death in Paris was the result of a duel has become current. The doctors who attended him have given to this story, as they did to the original report, the most explicit, most positive denial.

The new narrative is simply another version of the original, and is a scrupulously proper man, blameless in his personal life and taught a class in Sunday school for many years. The mystery of his dying in the "obscure" hotel was dispelled when it came out that he had long been in the habit of stopping at that hotel when in
