EPIDEMIG OF HORSE POISONING AT JUNCTION

Collegiate Board Meets-General News From All Over York County. .

TORONTO JUNCTION, Nov. 11.— Mr. Cummings of 25° South Union-street, while at work in the Massey-Harris plant to-day, had one of his fingers badly smashed between two pleces of iron.

The wedding isanneunced for Nov. 20 of Miss Ethel Louise Woodburn of King-st., Carlton West, to Geo. Moore of Pacific-avenue, secretary of the Junior Shamrock Lacrosse Club.

From present indications it would seem that someone with a mania for poisoning horses is operating in the Junction. Already four horses, belonging to Junction merchants, have died since Monday last, and another may have to be shot. Veterinary surgeons who have examined the animals believe that strychnine poisoning was the cause of death in every case.

cause of death in every case.

On Monday last a horse belonging to Poyntz Bros., corner of Hoskin-avenue and Dundas-street, died in the stable on Quebec-avenue. The following day a horse which was the property of L. Collins, a driver for Poyntz, died in a stable on Hoskin-avenue, owned by George H. Skidmore, a local milk dealer. On Wednesday last two of Mr. Skidmore's horses died in the same stable, and now another one is very ill and may have to be shot. The owners of the horses believe that poison has been thrown into the stable. The police are investigating the affair.

PLAIN TALK FROM THE DOCTOR

A prominent physician, famous for his success in the treatment of kidney and bladder troubles, stated that to the following prescription is due a great deal of his success:

One ounce fluid extract dandelion:

One ounce compound salatone; Four ounces compound syrup

Four ounces compound syrup sarsaparilla.

Mix and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime, drinking plenty of water.

This mixture will, he says, positively cure any diseases arising from weak, clogged or inactive kidneys, and will assist these organs to cleanse the blood of the poisonous waste matter and acids, which, if allowed to remain, cause lumbago, lame back, rheumatism and sciatica, and at the same time will restore the kidneys to healthy normal action. The ingredients, which are purely vegetable and normal action. The ingretients, which are purely vegetable and entirely harmless, can be procured from any good druggist and mixed at home at very little cost.

WOMAN WORE MEN'S CLOTHES For Sixty Years She Worked at Masculine Employment.

TRINIDAD, Colo., Nov. 11.-Miss Catherine Vosbaugh, who for nearly 60 years passed as a man, died at a hospital to-day.

Miss Vosbaugh was born in France 83 years ago. When a young woman she found it difficult to make her way on account of her sex. Adopting men's clothes she obtained employment as a bookkeeper in Joplin, Mo. This position she held for nine years, and then accepted a position in a St. Joseph, Mo., bank.

While in St. Joseph she married a woman with whom she lived for 30 years, as "Charles" Vosbaugh. The two women as man and wife came worked in various capacities until she became so feeble that last year she was taken to a hospital. It was then that her sex was discovered.

TO VOTE ON THE BYLAWS

Trunk Sewer and Fiftration Scheme Shelved - Special Meeting to Decide on Car Routes.

Controller Harrison's pet project of a trunk sewer and water filtration plant, to cost upwards of $5,000,000, was given a joit at yesterday's meeting of the city council, when, by a large majority, it was decided not to submit the question to a vote of the ratepayers for the present. The chief arguments advanced against bringing forward the bylaw were that it might jeopardize the success of the power bylaw by confusing the minds of voters, and also that the magnitude of the proposition demanded more consideration on the part of the civic representatives and the public.

In the absence of the mayor, Controller Hubbard presided, and it was his motion to refer the project back which brought the issue to a head. The vote was: For referring back considerations of the project was: vote was: For referring back—Con-trollers Hubbard and Hocken, Ald Geary, J. J. Graham, Vaughan, Mc-Ghie, Adams, Saunderson, R. H. Graham, Bengough, Lytle, Whytock, Church, Foster and Keeler—15. Against —Controller Harrison, Ald. McMurrich, McBride and J. Hales—4. Controller Harrison later moved the of the sceheme, which motion was de-known.

Controller Hubbard charged that civic officials had no opinion on the purity or otherwise of Lake Ontario water until they received a report from Dr. Amyot. He proposed that the city should institute tests of the water.

Objections to Car Lines. Welch of St. James' Cathedral, who headed a deputation in op-position to the proposed Adelaide-street line, took the ground that as there were already car lines on two sides of the the operation of street cars, on Church-street, plans were being prepared for new parish buildings, but a car line on Adelaide-street would render such a street, connecting with Church-street, should serve the purpose.

The Guild of Civic Art, which has been active in opposition to car lines on University-avenue, was represented by Vice-President A. H. Campbell, W. A. Langton and Secretary A. E. Huestis, who renewed the contention that such lines would destroy the quietness and repose which were chief charms of the avenue, and that the city should strive to secure Teraulay-street for the parallel line desired.

"We think that if the street cars run up either Queen's-avenue or University-street, the most attractive feature within the city will be spoiled." said Mr. Langton. "The favorite walk of the true lover of the avenue is on University-street. If the contraction University-street. If the cars run up this walk might as well be a sidewalk in Church-street. There are trees on Church-street, too. It is not only the fact of its having rows of trees that gives the avenue its character and makes it unique. It is its freedom from not got some characteristic feature which comes to your mind when you are away from it. The avenue is the central feature of Toronto." He argued in favor of the Teraulay-street route instead.

Ald. Church's suggestion that the matter of street railway extensions was one whose importance justified a special meeting of the council, was adopted without discussion, and the board of control's recommendations for car lines stood over.

Ald. McBride objected to raising the wages of city scavengers from $2 to $2.25 a day, declaring that it was unfair to single out any one class of civic employes for an increase. Only Ald. Lytle supported him.

Owing to the tightness of money, Dr

McDonald, who last May obtained from the city a lease of a portion of Stanley Park for the establishing of a horse market, has found difficulty in financing the project, as explained in motion by Ald. Chisholm, asking that the lease be rescinded. The matter was
