

O ye that shiver by your blazing fires,
Think of the inmates of yon buri, half sunk
Beneath the drift: from it no smoke ascends;
The broken straw filled pane excludes the light,
But ill excludes the blast.

Horrible Assassination by a French Curate.

PARIS, JULY 21, 1824.

A brochure (pamphlet) has been published here, giving a detailed account of the rape and assassination committed by Mingrat, ex-curate of St. Quentin (department of the Isere), who was condemned to death by the Court of Assize of Grenoble, on the 9th of December, 1822. The following are the principle facts:—Mingrat, a man of low extraction, was, at the age of 28, named to the curacy of St. Quentin. He had not been long in the situation when some strange stories began to circulate respecting him. Some scandalous and criminal adventures were laid to his account, and neither his tone nor his manners were calculated to discredit those rumours. He was a man of lofty stature, with a sombre, false, and disdaining expression of countenance. He was possessed of im-
