RECENT WEDDINGS

Miss Emma Witton of Halifax was married in marriage by Adjutant Owen of the Salvation Army last evening to Herbert Jepson of Milltown, both of the staff of the hotel. The bride was attended by Mrs. Easing Laurie, her cousin, and the bridegroom by the groom. Miss Annie Laurie was flower girl.

The marriage of Harold Fleming, son of Mrs. William H. Nas, of Goodrich street, and the late Mr. White, to Miss Marion Emery White, daughter of Mrs. William White, of 40 burg street, and the late Mr. White, was solemnized at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. J. A. Macleagan, 79 Leinster street, last night.

RECENT DEATHS

A wide circle of friends will learn with regret of the sudden death yesterday of Mrs. Charles Masters at her home, 99 Mount Pleasant avenue. She was survived by her husband, four sons, Percy, Tyrrell and Colin, of St. John, and William, in Detroit, and one daughter, Miss Olive Masters, at home.

The death of Miss Elsie M. Knowlton took place last evening at the General Public Hospital after a brief illness. She was taken ill last Friday and taken to the hospital, where it was found she had acute appendicitis. Peritonitis developed and she died last evening. She leaves a mother, Mrs. Sarah J. Knowlton; a sister, Mrs. J. O. McKenise of Albert, and a brother, Eldridge B. Knowlton of City.

William A. Colpitts died at his home, Mapleton, Elgin, Albert county, on Wednesday, in the ninety-first year of his age. He leaves two daughters, one son and one sister.

Malcolm Smith, aged thirteen years, died at the Fraser Memorial Hospital on Wednesday, as a result of blood poisoning. He leaves, besides his parents, three sisters and one brother.

Where Society Brand Clothes Are Sold

To the Young Man Who Worries About His Clothes Look

EVERY young man is embarrassed with the belief that all mankind is solely engaged in observing his manners and appearance. As he grows older and acquires wisdom he learns that this is not so; yet he feels that it is the part of a gentleman to clothe and deport himself as if it were so.

Society Brand Clothes
Made in Canada

are for young men because their acknowledged style leadership keeps the young man conscious of good appearance.

They are for men who stay young because staying young consists largely of retaining the confidence and alertness of youth even after age has swept away the self-consciousness of youth.
