CAPT. E. J. RYAN, M.D., EXPECTED THIS WEEK

It will interest many friends to learn that Capt. Edward J. Ryan, M. D., is coming home on the S. S. Aquitania, which is now on the Atlantic and is expected in Halifax tomorrow. A cable to his father, Michael Ryan, of M. & H. Gallagher & Co., brought the news. Captain Ryan was a physician in St. John when the war broke out. The very next month—September, 1914—he left for the scenes of conflict, crossing the ocean attached to the Strathcona Horse, with the first contingent. He joined the Imperial Army and went with the R. A. M. C. to France. After a brief period of service there he was detailed for duty at Lemnos Island in the Mediterranean and from there went to the Dardanelles, where he was through the Gallipoli campaign.

He was wounded in the leg in the fighting there and was sent to Alexandria, Egypt. For a time he was engaged on a Red Cross train, caring for the wounded and then spent some two years in military hospital work in Cairo. Captain Ryan then joined the camel corps and was with it through the campaign in the Holy Land and was at the taking of Jerusalem by General Allenby. After the signing of the armistice he returned to England, via Italy, in last April. He has seen a lot of the world and of war experiences in his absence of nearly five years. A hearty welcome home awaits him.

BACK ON OLD JOB. Sergeant Charles M. Johnston, who severed his connection with the Canadian Drug Co., Ltd., some four years ago, to join a siege battery, has again resumed his duties as traveler for that company. The many friends of Mr. Johnston on the road will be pleased to learn that he is back in his old position and will call on them regularly in the interests of this firm, which has held open all the places for those of its staff who enlisted and went overseas to help win the war.

Liquor Cases in Police Court—Evidence and Argument in Brussels Street Matter

In the police court this morning the case of Wallace Stevens, charged with having liquor in his possession other than in his private dwelling, was resumed. E. S. Ritchie for the defendant, asked that as the defendant was out on a $150 deposit, the case be disposed of that way. This was decided on.

The case against Harry Kent charged with having liquor in his possession in his premises in 77 Brussels street, was resumed. Inspector Saunders gave further evidence and Inspectors Linton, Daley and McKee gave corroborative evidence. Kent gave evidence that he was the proprietor of a grocery store and bakery at 77 Brussels street, and also was a contractor and builder by trade. He said that on Monday, June 2, between 8 and 9 p. m., while he was in his store waiting on a customer, Inspector Saunders followed by the other four inspectors, Saunders had said at a former hearing that he told the defendant they had come to search the premises, and also that the defendant said that they would find no liquor there. The defendant denied this. He said there was one door and entrance to his private dwelling as well as inside. He said the inspectors found some liquor in a bedroom.

In April, 1917, before the prohibition act came into force, the defendant said he bought three cases of liquor, one of gin, one of whiskey and a mixed case of port wine and sherry, which he said was used solely by the family for medicine. What liquor the inspectors found was part of this. He said that at the time he bought the liquor the store was not connected with the dwelling, but since then stairs had been erected leading from the dwelling to the store. He said he sometimes bought three dozen bottles of lemon a week, some of which he used for cooking and the rest he sold in the store only to his customers who were going to use it for cooking.

The case being concluded the magistrate heard the arguments of the counsel, D. Mullin, K. C., for the defence; J. Starr, T. K. for the prosecution. Magistrate Ritchie did not give judgment as he wished to consider, but he said, under the evidence, he would impose a fine of $50. He added that if on considering the evidence he thought the case ought to be dismissed, he would do so.

The case of James McKenney, charged with having liquor in his possession illegally and which was to be resumed today, was not given a further hearing as the defendant did not appear. He forfeited a deposit of $400. Four men were charged with drunkenness and were committed to jail. One man charged with drunkenness yesterday morning was fined $8 or two months in jail. Two men Leo Hayes and Walter Elliot, came to the police station this morning and gave themselves up to Detectives Biddiscombe and Donahue as they were wanted on charge of assaulting a Chinese, Chien Ham. They put up a deposit of $20 each for their appearance in court. The case will likely be aired in the police court Friday morning.

GIFTS FROM K. C. HUTS FOR SOLDIERS AT THE FREDERICTON HOSPITAL

Major Frank Eason, adjutant of the Fredericton Military Hospital, accompanied by two returned soldiers, arrived in the city this morning for the purpose of taking to Fredericton a motor boat which has been donated to the Fredericton Military Hospital by the Knights of Columbus Army Huts through the commission of Major George Keefe. The boat is a fine craft, measuring thirty feet in length with a seven foot beam and is equipped with a three cylinder eighteen horsepower Fairbanks-Morse engine capable of attaining a speed of fourteen knots. In addition to this boat the K. of C. Huts have donated to the Fredericton Military Hospital a large Chestnut cruising canoe. These gifts will no doubt afford great pleasure to the men under treatment at the Fredericton hospital and the thoughtful kindness of Major Keefe and the organization which he represents will be recognized and greatly appreciated by them.

ACTIVITIES OF CATHOLIC RED CROSS CIRCLES ARE REVIEWED AT MEETING

An interesting report of the activities of the organization during the war was made by the secretary, Mrs. Richard O'Brien, at a meeting of the central circle of the Catholic Red Cross last evening. The meeting was held in the Y. M. C. I. rooms with the president, Mrs. J. D. Maher, in the chair. Members from the six circles representing the six parishes in the city and vicinity were present. Rev. Wm. M. Duke, rector of the Cathedral parish, in an address to the meeting congratulated the ladies on the excellent work that had been accomplished both in regard to the relief of the wounded and the comfort of the fighting troops overseas and at home. The Misses Lynch and Miss Hogan were heard in some delightful musical selections and light refreshments were served after the meeting.
