

THIRD WITNESS (Cont'd)
Prosecution

SD 148930 D cpl Jolly, HT.

Q.2. Was he carrying anything when you arrested him?
A.2. He had in his hand the set of dies which were in their original container and wrapped in a sand bag.

Q.3. Did you examine the dies then?

A.3. No, Sir, but I knew what they were and I examined them when I arrived at Hq.

Q.4. Are you sure that this package that you examined at Hq and found out to be the set of dies was the same as the package you had confiscated from Spr Doggart?

A.4. Yes, Sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

FOURTH WITNESS
Prosecution

SG 64643 Spr Beaulieu, JL, Royal Canadian School of Military Engineering, having been duly sworn states:-

I am SG 64643 Spr Beaulieu, JL, presently on a plumbing course at RCMEE. On the 16 Nov 49 at about 1630 hrs, Cpl Pelissier came to me and asked me to remain in the plumbing shop and watch to see if anybody was coming around and if so, to let him know who it was. Cpl Pelissier was going over to the guard room and he came back with Cpl Gillies and a member of the Canadian Provost Corps. He asked me if anybody had come and I said "No". He then told me I could leave.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

FIFTH WITNESS
Prosecution

SM 34134 Spr Padden, EP, 23 Field Squadron RCE, having been duly sworn states:-

I am SM 34134 Spr Padden, EP, of the 23 Field Squadron, RCE. At about 1645 hrs, 16 Nov 49, I was in hut nine and Spr Doggart came to me and asked me if I could give him a lift in my car. I said he could. He then requested me to drive around to the plumbers' shop because he had something to pick up there. I stopped at the plumbing shop and Spr Doggart got out of the car. As I was waiting for him I heard a yell and saw L cpl Jolly coming over to my car. L cpl Jolly told Spr Doggart that he was under arrest, got in my car and asked me to drive him over to Hq. L cpl Jolly took us both in the RSM's office and he told the RSM what had happened. L cpl Jolly opened the package that Spr Doggart had been carrying and then found a set of Vesper dies.

Q.1. Did you know for what reason Spr Doggart asked you to drive him?

A.1. No, Sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.
