

POOR DOCUMENT

FREDERICTON GLOBE.

The FREDERICTON GLOBE is published every Saturday from the office, St. John's Street, and mailed to any address in Canada or the United States for One Dollar per annum, in advance.

Advertising.
Advertisements such as Wanted, Lost, Found, Houses to Rent, Etc., one dollar first insertion, and five cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Births and Marriages fifty cents each insertion. Circulars for yearly advertising furnished on application at a special rate. No advertisements for communications business or otherwise to be addressed to FREDERICTON GLOBE.

Fred. B. Edgecombe

A. J. MURPHY, Publisher and Proprietor. FREDERICTON, N. B., SEPT. 5, 1892.

LEEISM.

The following very interesting article is taken from the Boston Herald, upon which paper Mr. Lee has obtained employment as a special editorial writer. Read it and be interested:

"It is not often that the Herald prints a sadder or more heartrending story than that which appeared in Saturday's paper. It has all the elements that strongly enlist our sympathies. Mr. Lee, as a youth passed through experiences in which he did himself great credit, and entered upon professional life with prospects as bright as those which have been in the possession of average men. He was burdened with debt, and in order to escape from it by a quick and easy process he resorted to speculation in western grain. This was at the very best a risky proceeding for a wealthy man, and for one who wished to improve his fortunes it was taking risks that were simply maddening and wild. It plunged him into deeper debt and compelled twisting and turning in every direction to keep his accounts straight. Then in his desperate struggle came the temptation to hypothecate securities not truly belonging to him for his debts, and which was followed by getting deeper and deeper into debt, until his case was hopeless, and he had to take to flight to prevent his arrest as a criminal. During all this terrible struggle, it appears from his story that he never had thought of defaulting or defrauding any one. The tide of things was against him. He struggled and struggled to no purpose, and when he left his home he even had to borrow money enough to take him to Boston. There was none of the cunning depravity of a once 'good man' in his business career. He was simply trying to make the best of things and under circumstances and his story is pathetic and real to the last degree. It represents the trials and temptations of many business and professional men who get into holes and do not know how to get out of them. The honesty and integrity of Mr. Lee speak for themselves, and it is a brave man who turns about in the last ditch and faces the world with his whole story. There are points in this narrative which we need not enlarge upon, but which come home with terrible closeness to the untold experiences of many who are in a similar plight."

But it is all leading, which, no one but the Herald writer believes to be true, to tell us that a mere boy, having no practice and no money, was called upon to support his mother and family, after the father's death, more especially when we know that the relatives and connections of that family are highly respectable and well-to-do people. If the Herald man, however, believes this part of the story, he ought to know that a young man unknown as it were, having no means of his own, must have commenced borrowing from the beginning—of whom? Who was there to credit an unknown person? Again, has not the whole of his career been one of deception and rascality, a most dangerous man to be at large in any community? Has he not borrowed from high and low to cover up his sins, to ward off the current of the medical profession is singled out simply because he is a doctor, why should not the printer have a chance? There is a bright particular star (who sometimes shines by day as well as night) on one of the St. John dailies who would not make a bad governor, provided always &c., &c. What does our present governor think of the composition of the different candidates so far named for his office—to say nothing of a host of others yet to be named? He must certainly blush.

NO GOVERNOR YET.
The last brain creation is Mr. George W. Day, the veteran printer of St. John's, a goodly old man. Why not, to quote our contemporary—if a member of the medical profession is singled out simply because he is a doctor, why should not the printer have a chance? There is a bright particular star (who sometimes shines by day as well as night) on one of the St. John dailies who would not make a bad governor, provided always &c., &c. What does our present governor think of the composition of the different candidates so far named for his office—to say nothing of a host of others yet to be named? He must certainly blush.

Suspended Work.
Mr. Foster, who had charge of the work on the Howard & Orange building, had some words with one of the firm yesterday which resulted in the entire force of workmen knocking off.

NOTES AND NOTIONS.

Prince Blamarck is so proud of the first medal he received that he always wears it even with his grandest decorations. It was presented to him for saving at great personal risk, the life of a groom called Hildebran, whose horse became unmanageable, and dashed with its rider into the Lippener Lake. One day at a public reception a newly-made diplomat came up to Blamarck, and asked what the small unpretending-looking medal meant. He replied: "I have the habit of sometimes saving a man's life."

Running Comments on Passing Events.
Sundry Ebulitions in Prose and Rhyme.

How the Domestic, Social and Literary World is Wagging.
A certain lady was once described by a rival as having "organs of hearing which were unfortunately too large for ears and not large enough for wings."
Caller: "I had to wait a long while for my turn to get in to see you."
Bossy Man: "Well, I will equalize matters by letting you out immediately."
A country paper has this personal item:—"Those who know old Mr. Wilson of this place personally will regret to hear that he was assailed in a brutal manner last week, but was not killed."
Caller: "I say, Steele, we can settle the case of Smith v. Thompson for £100. That's £20 for you and £80 for me."
Steele: "But how about our client? Where did he come in?"
Caller (impatiently): "Oh, give him £20."

The two most absent-minded men on record are the fellow who thought he had left his watch at home and then took it out to see if he had time to go to bed, and the man who put on his office door a card saying: "Out; we will be back soon," and on his return and down on the stair step to wait for himself.

"Home once more!" muttered the weary man, as he leaned on his well-worn staff and surveyed the village. "The hope that has hitherto borne me up now almost deserts me, and I gaze round at the strange faces and shops that have sprung up in the streets. How different is everything from what it was when I was a boy! Where is the old familiar baker's shop round the corner, outside of which I used to spin our tops? Where is the clean old wheelwright? Ah!—can it be possible—they have pulled down the church, and built a—"
"Now, then, get out of 'this,' said the policeman. "Muddleton ain't the place for the likes of you!"
"Muddleton!" echoed the weary traveler. "Where's Puddleton then?"
"Twenty mile on."

And so it was. He had mistaken the end and come to the wrong village. The Emperor of Germany is often addressed by his subjects in writing. In the following stilted style: "Most serene and august Emperor and King, Most Gracious King and Lord." The German newspaper refers to him as "The Allhighness," and generally employ the plural the number, the effect of which is somewhat curious; e.g., "They will say, 'His Majesty are at Cologne.'"
The Turkish Sultan's kitchen costs the empire £2000 annually. The building extends 150 ft. on every side. The dishes are served in the kitchen by no less a person than Osman Pasha, and here of the old and re-unealed in the Sultan's presence.

An admirer of Wagner has lately paid as much as £21 sterling for the portion of the opera "Parsifal," which the publisher at Bayreuth, where the "Meister" used to quaff his daily beer. It was not the whole bench, but merely the part where Wagner was wont to sit.
Only one instance in which a lady has changed her name three times in one day is on record. Mr. Croft, son of Sir A. D. Croft, was married at Wedg Hill, Hants, at one time M. P. for Salisbury. The same day the old baronet died and Mr. Croft was succeeded by his son. This lady was in the morning Miss Marsb, in the afternoon Mrs. Croft, and at night Lady Croft.

THIEVES SURE TO BE CAUGHT.
There is no doubt now that the midnight thieves who have just been busy in Fredericton and St. John are sure to be caught, the evidence being so conclusive as appears by a St. John paper:—
"Traces found about the residence of Senator Lewis, at Lancaster, indicate that on the night the residence of Mr. Joseph Scammell was robbed, the burglars contemplated a visit to the senator's. Yesterday a pair of rubber soled shoes, such as those supposed to be worn by the burglars, were found under one of the barns near Mr. Lewis's house, and a match like those at Mr. Scammell's was also picked up. It is supposed that the burglars did not get a chance to enter Senator Lewis's house, owing to some of his family being about with the early morning."

Why bless your dear heart, those old rubbers were thrown under that barn by the Senator himself two years ago, after having used them for four years and considered no longer fit for service. "Give the devil his due" but don't try and fit those old rubbers upon the feet of the burglar. As for that single match found upon the premises, it is to be hoped it has been sent over to the Chief of Police for safe keeping.

NO GOVERNOR YET.
The last brain creation is Mr. George W. Day, the veteran printer of St. John's, a goodly old man. Why not, to quote our contemporary—if a member of the medical profession is singled out simply because he is a doctor, why should not the printer have a chance? There is a bright particular star (who sometimes shines by day as well as night) on one of the St. John dailies who would not make a bad governor, provided always &c., &c. What does our present governor think of the composition of the different candidates so far named for his office—to say nothing of a host of others yet to be named? He must certainly blush.

Suspended Work.
Mr. Foster, who had charge of the work on the Howard & Orange building, had some words with one of the firm yesterday which resulted in the entire force of workmen knocking off.

NOTES AND NOTIONS.

Prince Blamarck is so proud of the first medal he received that he always wears it even with his grandest decorations. It was presented to him for saving at great personal risk, the life of a groom called Hildebran, whose horse became unmanageable, and dashed with its rider into the Lippener Lake. One day at a public reception a newly-made diplomat came up to Blamarck, and asked what the small unpretending-looking medal meant. He replied: "I have the habit of sometimes saving a man's life."

Running Comments on Passing Events.
Sundry Ebulitions in Prose and Rhyme.

How the Domestic, Social and Literary World is Wagging.
A certain lady was once described by a rival as having "organs of hearing which were unfortunately too large for ears and not large enough for wings."
Caller: "I had to wait a long while for my turn to get in to see you."
Bossy Man: "Well, I will equalize matters by letting you out immediately."
A country paper has this personal item:—"Those who know old Mr. Wilson of this place personally will regret to hear that he was assailed in a brutal manner last week, but was not killed."
Caller: "I say, Steele, we can settle the case of Smith v. Thompson for £100. That's £20 for you and £80 for me."
Steele: "But how about our client? Where did he come in?"
Caller (impatiently): "Oh, give him £20."

The two most absent-minded men on record are the fellow who thought he had left his watch at home and then took it out to see if he had time to go to bed, and the man who put on his office door a card saying: "Out; we will be back soon," and on his return and down on the stair step to wait for himself.

"Home once more!" muttered the weary man, as he leaned on his well-worn staff and surveyed the village. "The hope that has hitherto borne me up now almost deserts me, and I gaze round at the strange faces and shops that have sprung up in the streets. How different is everything from what it was when I was a boy! Where is the old familiar baker's shop round the corner, outside of which I used to spin our tops? Where is the clean old wheelwright? Ah!—can it be possible—they have pulled down the church, and built a—"
"Now, then, get out of 'this,' said the policeman. "Muddleton ain't the place for the likes of you!"
"Muddleton!" echoed the weary traveler. "Where's Puddleton then?"
"Twenty mile on."

And so it was. He had mistaken the end and come to the wrong village. The Emperor of Germany is often addressed by his subjects in writing. In the following stilted style: "Most serene and august Emperor and King, Most Gracious King and Lord." The German newspaper refers to him as "The Allhighness," and generally employ the plural the number, the effect of which is somewhat curious; e.g., "They will say, 'His Majesty are at Cologne.'"
The Turkish Sultan's kitchen costs the empire £2000 annually. The building extends 150 ft. on every side. The dishes are served in the kitchen by no less a person than Osman Pasha, and here of the old and re-unealed in the Sultan's presence.

An admirer of Wagner has lately paid as much as £21 sterling for the portion of the opera "Parsifal," which the publisher at Bayreuth, where the "Meister" used to quaff his daily beer. It was not the whole bench, but merely the part where Wagner was wont to sit.
Only one instance in which a lady has changed her name three times in one day is on record. Mr. Croft, son of Sir A. D. Croft, was married at Wedg Hill, Hants, at one time M. P. for Salisbury. The same day the old baronet died and Mr. Croft was succeeded by his son. This lady was in the morning Miss Marsb, in the afternoon Mrs. Croft, and at night Lady Croft.

THIEVES SURE TO BE CAUGHT.
There is no doubt now that the midnight thieves who have just been busy in Fredericton and St. John are sure to be caught, the evidence being so conclusive as appears by a St. John paper:—
"Traces found about the residence of Senator Lewis, at Lancaster, indicate that on the night the residence of Mr. Joseph Scammell was robbed, the burglars contemplated a visit to the senator's. Yesterday a pair of rubber soled shoes, such as those supposed to be worn by the burglars, were found under one of the barns near Mr. Lewis's house, and a match like those at Mr. Scammell's was also picked up. It is supposed that the burglars did not get a chance to enter Senator Lewis's house, owing to some of his family being about with the early morning."

Why bless your dear heart, those old rubbers were thrown under that barn by the Senator himself two years ago, after having used them for four years and considered no longer fit for service. "Give the devil his due" but don't try and fit those old rubbers upon the feet of the burglar. As for that single match found upon the premises, it is to be hoped it has been sent over to the Chief of Police for safe keeping.

NO GOVERNOR YET.
The last brain creation is Mr. George W. Day, the veteran printer of St. John's, a goodly old man. Why not, to quote our contemporary—if a member of the medical profession is singled out simply because he is a doctor, why should not the printer have a chance? There is a bright particular star (who sometimes shines by day as well as night) on one of the St. John dailies who would not make a bad governor, provided always &c., &c. What does our present governor think of the composition of the different candidates so far named for his office—to say nothing of a host of others yet to be named? He must certainly blush.

Suspended Work.
Mr. Foster, who had charge of the work on the Howard & Orange building, had some words with one of the firm yesterday which resulted in the entire force of workmen knocking off.

Prince Blamarck is so proud of the first medal he received that he always wears it even with his grandest decorations. It was presented to him for saving at great personal risk, the life of a groom called Hildebran, whose horse became unmanageable, and dashed with its rider into the Lippener Lake. One day at a public reception a newly-made diplomat came up to Blamarck, and asked what the small unpretending-looking medal meant. He replied: "I have the habit of sometimes saving a man's life."

YOU'LL BE SORRY!
If you purchase Watches, Clocks, Jewellery, or Silverware, before you see our goods and prices.
We do not wish it understood that this is a "Slaughter Sale" or a closing out of old, unseasonable and shop-worn goods. Our Newest, Brightest and Best Goods are included in this offer. We make no sensational offer of goods less than cost, but ALL Goods sold CLOSE. Come in and see, your reason for buying will be—

"BARGAINS".
R. BLACKMER.

TAYLOR'S
Photograph--Studio,
OPP. NORMAL SCHOOL.

The subscriber having leased the Photograph rooms on Queen Street, formerly occupied by the late G. W. Schleyer is now prepared to take Photographs in all the usual styles.
Cabinet, card size and sunbeam portraits made by the instantaneous process in any kind of weather.
Pictures copied, enlarged copies finished in India ink or water colors.
Having unrivaled facilities for doing first-class work he can guarantee satisfaction in all cases.
A good assortment of views of Marryville and Fredericton, and the Grand Falls and Upper St. John always on hand for sale.
Until further notice persons who may wish to have their portraits taken are requested to arrange for the same a day or two before they want the negative taken as the subscriber is very often away from his rooms taking new views.

GEORGE F. WILKES.
Fruit! Fruit!! Fruit!!!
A complete assortment of Cigars in stock.
George F. Wilkes.
Watches and Jewellery

READ THE BIBLE.
And at the Same Time Earn One Hundred Dollars in Gold.

The first letter containing the correct answer to the following questions received at the office of THE CANADIAN ADMINISTRATOR (each week from now until the 31st of Dec., 1892,) will receive $100 in gold; the second will get $500; the third, $25,000; and the fourth, $500,000. The correct answers will send prizes ranging from $5 down to $2.

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY OF IT.
"Received $1,000 prize last night"—M. M. Bradley, Vancouver, B. C.
"I shall recommend my friends to enter the contest"—Lord Elzouma, a. J. C. C. to the Governor General, Ottawa, Canada.
"Splendid prize received"—C. L. McCormack, St. Stephen, N. B.
"Prize of $255 received"—D. Harrison, Syracuse, N. Y.
"Handsome medal received"—Miss Betty Knoll, Oxford, Mich.
Over 5000 receipts from prize winners in former competitions on file in our office.
Letters containing money should in all cases be registered.
Address, THE ADMINISTRATOR PUBLISHING CO., Peterborough, Canada.

1892.
2nd ANNUAL Provincial Exhibition
OF NEW BRUNSWICK
Under the Management of Agricultural Society District No. 34, to be held at
FREDERICTON,
Wednesday, Thursday,
and Friday,
Oct. 5th, 6th, & 7th.

Cash Prizes in All Departments. Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Poultry, Swine, Agricultural, Horticultural, Pomological and Dairy Products, Honey and Apitry Supplies, Fancy Work, etc.
Prize Lists on application to the Secretary.
New and special attractions of which due notice will be given.
Racing and Trotting at Driving Park each day.
A. S. MURRAY, Secty.
O. E. MURRAY, Pres.

W. E. SEERY,
MERCHANT TAILOR,
Has Received an Elegant Line of New Suits and Trousers.

G. F. WILKES'
ICE CREAM
CREAM
SODA
AT
G. F. WILKES'

W. H. GOLDEN'S
ICE CREAM
CONFECTIONERY.
Now in Stock a Fine Line of Confectionery of every grade. Choice Mixtures, Chocolates National Creams, etc. Our stock you will find complete in every line. Fruits, Peanuts, etc., at
W. H. GOLDEN'S,
198 Queen Street.

Removal Notice!
The undersigned desire to thank the public for their patronage in the past and inform you that we have removed our workshop to the building purchased by an opposite the Post Office, where we have increased facilities for carrying on our business, and will be pleased to see all our old customers and many new ones.
Yours respectfully,
Kitchen & Shea.

The Best Stock of
MILLINERY
to be found in the city is at the
Millinery Establishment
MISS HAYES,
QUEEN + ST.

F. J. McCAUSLAND,
Opp. A. F. Randolph & Sons,
Fredericton, N. B., June 7.

JOHN H. FLEMING.
LIVERY
STABLE.
152 Union Street,
Saint John, - - - N. B.

August 27th.

New English Canadian Goods
Arriving per Ocean Steamers and per Train from Manufacturing Centers.
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.
Fred. B. Edgecombe.

A COMPLETE LINE AT
J. H. FLEMING'S,
222 Queen Street.

NEW GOODS
ARRIVING DAILY AT
Dever--Bros.
NEW DRESS GOODS
Cheviots, Bedford Cords, Henriettas, Cashmeres, Serges, Homespuns and Wool Fabrics in the Latest Colorings.
DEVER BROS.

SEEDS!
THE LARGEST STOCK AND BEST VARIETY IN THE CITY IS AT THE Drug--Store
OF
DAVIS, STAPLES & CO.

Removal Notice!
The undersigned desire to thank the public for their patronage in the past and inform you that we have removed our workshop to the building purchased by an opposite the Post Office, where we have increased facilities for carrying on our business, and will be pleased to see all our old customers and many new ones.
Yours respectfully,
Kitchen & Shea.

The Best Stock of
MILLINERY
to be found in the city is at the
Millinery Establishment
MISS HAYES,
QUEEN + ST.