

Fewer Eggs are required with ROYAL BAKING POWDER

In many recipes the number of eggs may be reduced with excellent results by using an additional quantity of Royal Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, for each egg omitted. The following recipe is a practical example:

Chocolate Sponge Roll

1/4 cups flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
2 squares melted chocolate

1 1/2 tablespoons melted shortening
1 cup hot water
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 teaspoon Royal Baking Powder

The old method called for 4 eggs and no baking powder

DIRECTIONS—Sift flour, baking powder and salt together three times. Beat whole eggs. Add slowly sugar, then boiling water slowly; add next vanilla, melted chocolate and melted shortening, without beating. Sift in dry ingredients, and fold in as lightly as possible. Pour into large baking pan lined with oiled paper, and bake in slow oven twenty minutes. When done, turn out on a damp, hot cloth, spread with white icing and roll.

Do not use recipes which economize in eggs and other essential ingredients unless noted.

Get Your Coal Now

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that our local coal dealers, C. & A. Dawe, are advising their coal customers to lay in, as far as possible, their stock of coal as early as possible. Householders would do well to take this advice, as the coal situation during the coming fall and winter is likely to be a very serious one. If house-holders lay in their stock of coal now, it will enable the dealers to secure a reserve stock to sell during the late fall and winter months. The present price of coal is an additional reason why you should buy now.

A Fire Department

How members of the House of Assembly representing Outport Districts can sit in the House and see money voted for the upkeep of the Fire Department of St. John's to the extent of several thousand dollars, while numerous places in their own districts (with property and stock just as precious and valuable to the owners as these things are) have to do without a single thing to fight a fire with, positively beats our comprehension.

To bring it closer home. Here is Bay Roberts, an important and flourishing town in the District of Harbor Grace, represented by three men, Mr. Eppett representing especially this end of the district, and while thousands of dollars are annually voted out of the General Revenue, mind you, for the upkeep of a first class fire department in St. John's and for St. John's, Bay Roberts cannot obtain from the Government even so much as a bucket or a ladder or anything else to enable its citizens to quench a fire with.

We have it on no less an authority than the Premier himself, who represents St. John's West, that the St. John's Fire Dept. is "purely a municipal service." That being the case, the expenses of the department should be borne by the citizens.

On the other hand, if the upkeep of that fire department is largely paid out of the General Revenue of the country, then other towns throughout the country are as fully entitled to be provided with something to save their property with in case of fire as the citizens of St. John's. And yet our representatives do not seem to give the matter any attention whatever. Citizens and property holders of this locality, what are you going to do about it?

That Electric Co. Charter

The Public Service Electric Co.'s Charter, to which we referred in a recent issue, has been passed by the Legislature. The Company wanted the right to do business in this Bay as far as Holyrood, but as usual, influences not in sympathy with the interests of the people were exerted and the rights granted only extend as far as Spaniard's Bay.

That is the great trouble with a lot of legislation put through in this country. Men are constantly being sent to the House to represent the peoples' interests who will allow themselves to be made tools of for the benefit of capitalists and others.

The public interest is only secondary. This is what happened in this case, so we learn. The time will shortly come when the fishermen of Conception Bay will be interested in electrical power to run their motor engines with. We are given to understand that it is the intention of the new company to supply storage batteries to the fishermen, which is said to be very much cheaper than gasoline.

Therefore, for many reasons the public are interested in the success of this company, and we venture to say that the day will come when the public demand will be satisfied.

How so many men who are representatives of the people can be satisfied to see so many things put through the House against the interests of the people is a problem we cannot very well solve. They must either be ignorant of their duty, or else recreant to it, or they must regard the electorate as so much "cullage." Candidly, we are inclined to place the blame on the electorate as much as on their so-called representatives, because of the lack of an intelligent and practical interest in matters which affect them.

Bad Conditions on Russian Front

Petrograd, July 23.—That chaotic conditions are prevailing on a part of the Russian front, was disclosed in a telegram to Premier Kerensky, the Provisional Government and the Council of Workmen's and Soldiers' delegates by the Executive Committee and Commissioner of the Provisional Government with the Second Army on the south-western front. The telegram announced the inauguration of stern measures to combat the disaffection. "They unanimously recognize that the situation demands extreme measures and efforts for everything must be risked to save the revolution from catastrophe. This commander in chief on the western front and the commander of the second army have given orders to fire on deserters and runaways. Let the country know the truth, let it act without mercy, let it find enough courage to strike those who by their cowardice are destroying Russia and the revolution." Referring to the threatened disaster the telegram says: "Most of the military units are in a state of complete disorganization. Their spirit for the offensive has utterly disappeared. They no longer listen to the orders of their leaders and they neglect all exhortations of their comrades, even replying by threats and shots. Some of the elements voluntarily evacuate positions without even waiting the approach of the enemy."

Wedding Bells

BOWERING-RISLEY.

On Wednesday evening, June 27th, at 8 o'clock, the marriage of Miss Leona Risley, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Risley, to the Rev. Allan G. Bowering, took place in the presence of over 200 guests at the Presbyterian Church at De Kalb Junction, N. Y. The Rev. W. C. MacIntyre, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Ogdensburg, performed the ceremony, using the impressive double ring service.

The bride entered the church accompanied by her father and preceded by the matron of honor, Mrs. A. J. Penny, of Hamelton, the bridesmaids, Miss Katherine Bird of Malone, Miss Ruth Briggs of Gouverneur, Miss Harriet Meservy and Ethel Jamison of Canton. Little 4-year-old Miss Portia Van Delinder was flower girl, throwing the path of the bride with roses from a tiny white satin basket. The little maid was dressed in soft white crepe-de-chine, trimmed in white ribbons. She wore a band of white satin with white tulle roses on each side of her head.

The groom's best man was Rev. A. J. Penny, and the ushers Frank Barber, Roy Tupper, Lyle Huntress and Furlo Gilmour. Mr. Bowering and the Rev. A. J. Penny awaited the bride at the altar.

The bride wore a gown of white bride's satin and a tulle veil which was fastened to her head with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor wore a white satin dress trimmed with old lace. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses. The bridesmaids were gowned alike in yellow and carried arm bouquets of daisies.

Daisies and ferns decorated the church, and the same flowers, combined with yellow roses and lilies, were used profusely at the home, where a reception followed the ceremony. About 100 guests were present.

The happy couple left on a wedding tour to Montreal, amid a shower of rice and good wishes. The young people received innumerable beautiful gifts of cut glass and silver, also many others. Friends were present from Canton, Gouverneur, Ogdensburg, Potsdam and Huntington, Canada. The bride presented her matron of honor and bridesmaids with paintings of oil and water color, while the groom's gifts to the ushers were stick pins.

Miss Risley is a graduate of Potsdam High School, 1916, and was also a student of Prof. Hawthorne's Piano-forte school. She has been socially prominent and active in the church work. The groom was a student of McGill College, Montreal, Canada. Recently he was given a charge as pastor in the Presbyterian Church at De Kalb, N. Y., U. S. A.

The Rev. and Mrs. A. G. Bowering will make their home with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Risley.
