SPOKANE MEN
BUY SLOCAN MINE

Mill at the Athabasca Will Resume Operations—Shipments for Week

Nelson, April 5.—The Mollie Hughes mine, a dry silver and gold property, which adjoins the townsite of New Denver on Slocan lake, has been sold by Michael Zaton to a syndicate of Spokane capitalists, represented by A. J. Becker. The group was located about 1897, and four of the claims have been worked successfully by several different syndicates. Mr. Zaton during his control of the property has exerted most of his efforts towards the development of the Kinkora claim where he has drilled some 400 feet to the left on an old crosscut and has taken out a considerable tonnage of ore. The crosscut has been driven on the Kinkora vein near the water edge. This tapped the vein at 230 feet. A feature of the property is that the workings have been so arranged that the ore can be taken out of the mine and delivered to barges on the lake from the tunnel near the water's edge thus effecting great economy in transportation. The average net return from the mine taken during the year when the property has been operated gave a figure of a tripe over $24 to the ton.

There is now sufficient water at the Athabasca mine to run two drills and good progress is being made with development work. It is expected that there will be sufficient power to operate the mill within a week, and the mine is then expected to become one of the regular producers of the Nelson district.

The following are the shipments and smaller receipts for the past week and year to date:

INFANTILE PARALYSIS

A Germ Disease Which is Baffling the Doctors and Alarming the People Generally

It may be said that doctors are only agreed on two points regarding this much dreaded disease. First, that it is a germ disease, and second, like all germ diseases can only be fought with pure, rich blood. Prevention is always the better way, and that is why we are always talking about the wisdom of keeping the blood pure and rich and the nerve healthy and strong by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Rich, red blood is a deadly foe to disease germs whether they are germs of infantile paralysis, of cold, of consumption or any other disease. Don't let the blood get thin and watery. Don't let the nerves get exhausted. The risk is too great. Every dose of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food goes to the formation of a certain amount of pure, rich blood. For this reason you are certain to benefit by this treatment.

You need not wait until you have some form of paralysis before testing this great medicine. Be warned by headache, sleeplessness, irritability, falling memory and power of concentration the mind. Restore the system while still you have something to build on. Get new energy and vigor into the system by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box; 6 boxes for $2.50; at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

In the course of his defence of the conservative directors in declaring a dividend of only five per cent, Mr. Booth said: "Perhaps a lasting and satisfactory settlement of claims of competing lines can only be arrived at after another rate war."

TWO SOLICITORS FOR SAME WOMAN

Surprises for Legal Gentlemen in Police Court Over Girl Held by Police

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
A pretty young woman clad in a black pony coat and a plumed hat sitting demurely in the police court this morning, found she had two solicitors appearing for her, and both solicitors were more surprised than she was herself. She is known to one of her solicitors as Hattie Deborah, and the other did not make known that he knew her by any name at all, except that she was his client.

J. A. Alkman was the first solicitor who brought Hattie Deborah to the notice of the court, when the name of Frances Smith was called on a charge of keeping a disorderly house at 640 Division street. Mr. Alkman pleaded not guilty for his client and obtained a remand until Monday.

He then told the magistrate that he had a client whom the police had locked up in jail and whom there was no charge laid against. He wanted to know on what authority such a proceeding was conducted. The client was a young woman who, he understood, was to be a witness in the Smith case.

Replying to the chief prosecutor, he said the woman alleged to be missing was his client, and that he was appearing for her.

"Well, Mr. Lowe says she is his client," said the magistrate. "Yes, an appearance for her," said Mr. C. Lowe; here she is sitting in court."

Mr. Harrison—She has been out of police custody since yesterday afternoon. Mr. Alkman.

Mr. Lowe explained that he had been consulted and had made inquiries. He found the police had the young woman committed to the jail and that she was being held as a witness against the woman Frances Smith. He had obtained her release upon threatening to take habeas corpus proceedings.

IMPERIAL CONFERENCE

Premier Asquith Will Preside at Number of Meetings

London, April 6.—In the House of Lords yesterday Earl Selborne asked the under-secretary of the colonies if it was the intention of the prime minister to preside at the meetings of the imperial conference. He said all matters to be discussed at the conference were of vital importance to the empire, because this linked the chain of common co-operation, and was becoming of ever-increasing importance. The meetings of the conference were closely watched; and the discussions followed with greater attention in the Overseas Dominions than in the United Kingdom.

Lord Lucan replied that the premier would preside at the first meeting, and as many subsequent meetings as practicable. In his absence the secretary for the colonies would preside.

Vancouver, April 5.—Several seams of coal of surprising size and excellent quality have been discovered near the head of Bella Coola valley recently, according to the statement of a business man who has just arrived from the north. The coal could not be distinguished from the bituminous coal of Vancouver. The Vancouver man was told by several reputable people that there were large beds of coal."

Kirey, it is alleged, was one of a party of campers that left Klamath for an outing in the national forest. After the party had been out for some time, Kirey and Miss Colburn had a disagreement which resulted in Kirey leaving the rest of the party. Shortly after several of the women of the party, including Miss Colburn, were seen to leave the party and to go into the forest. They had been gone about half an hour when they saw smoke rolling up the mountain side. They hurried down and found the fire had been started by Kirey. He was making a detour the party escaped the fire.

CALL TO PASTOR

Nelson, April 5.—At a largely attended meeting of the church congregation the First Baptist church, extended a unanimous call to Rev. C. W. King of Cranbrook to the local pastorate. Mr. King has filled the Cranbrook pastorate for two years, and has been extremely successful there. The imperative order of a physician that Mrs. King be removed to a lower altitude caused Mr. King to resign that charge, thus bringing about the present circumstances. At first he was intending to return east, but the conditions of life in Nelson are certainly equal to any to be found in the east, and there is therefore ground for the expectation that he will entertain this call. Mr. King's period in the ministry has been spent almost wholly in Ontario.

DIAZ WELCOMED TAFT'S ACTION

Mexican-Japanese Situation is Cleared by Mobilization of U. S. Troops

El Paso, Texas, April 6.—An explanation, bearing all the marks of authenticity, clearing up the American-Mexican-Japanese situation, was given here by one of the most prominent Mexican-Americans in the country. According to this informant who is in a position to know, but who insisted upon suppression of his name, President Diaz was seeking a way to refuse a coaling station on Magdalena Island to the Japanese, even before the renewal of American government's contract came up for discussion.

Diaz, said the Mexican-American, found himself between the upper and nether millstones. He was impressed by the influx of Japanese into Mexico and in particular with the knowledge that they had mapped his entire western coast, including the Gulf of California, and that they were in a position to bring him to give Japan a coaling station on Magdalena Bay. On the other side was the United States, and the Monroe doctrine. He temporized on hearing that news of the situation had reached the White House, from the latter, to his considerable relief, came unmistakable intimation that Japan was not to have this station, although the same privileges with the United States would not be insisted upon. Diaz then informed Japan that he did not care to lease any part of his country to any foreign power.

Not knowing what might be the result of the Mexican attitude in Japan, President Taft ordered the mobilization of a division of American troops at San Antonio, Galveston and El Paso.

In Mexico every citizen of standing and influence realizes that in the event of Japanese aggression which, however baseless as the fear may be, is still feared, Mexico must rely upon the assistance of the United States.

As against the oversea power Mexico would stand by her big neighbor to the north, Japan has never attempted the colonization of large bodies of Japanese on any special tracts of land in Mexico, but the immigration figures of the land of the Rising Sun are impressive.

Are not these immigrants mostly coolie laborers? was asked. Mexico does not need to import labor, they are mostly veterans of the late Russo-Japanese war. They would not come to Mexico to make an army of protection against the Americans. They come of their own accord and for their own interests. And bear this in mind, they are not taking maps for fun, and we know that many of the immigrants here have no other viable occupation.

REGULATION OF POOLROOMS.

Nanaimo, April 5.—The board of police commissioners of 1910, at its December sitting, discussed the question of hours pool rooms and bowling alleys should remain open. After a full discussion of the subject the commissioners referred the matter to the city council at the end of the year, which body, not having the time at its disposal referred it to the council of 1911. At the meeting Monday night the subject was again taken up when Ald. Busby introduced a bylaw which was given the first reading, and will come up for the second reading at the next meeting of the council. The bylaw reads as follows:

All bowling alleys and all pool rooms wherein are billiard or pool tables for hire or profit in the city of Nanaimo shall be closed on Sunday and on other days from midnight until eight o'clock in the morning.

Bowling alleys and pool rooms shall be subject to the supervision of the chief of police for the city of Nanaimo; and the chief of police and constables of the city shall have access to the same at all times.

No gambling or betting shall be permitted in any bowling alley or pool room, and printed notices to this effect shall be displayed in the walls of the bowling alleys or pool rooms.

Youths under the age of eighteen years shall not be allowed into any bowling alley or pool room in the city of Nanaimo.

Any violation or breach of any of the provisions of this bylaw shall subject the licensee of such bowling alley or pool room upon conviction to a fine not exceeding the sum of $100 together with costs, and in default of payment to imprisonment not exceeding three months.
