Ship owners are now having their turn. Disengaged ships are sought after at high charter rates, and very few are available. has been a jump in freight rates, especially on lumber cargoes, but as own-ers can do better by carrying wheat, many coasters are being sent foreign. Vessels in San Francisco are scarce, and the situation in Australia is no better. A bark now ready for sea was offered 16s. 3d. to bring coal from Newcastle to San Francisco. P. H. Marshall, of Wellington, moving This in spite of the fact that the bark has to go to Cape Town, thence to South Amer-ica, and from there to Anstralia, so that it would be at least five months before she CWS: would be available.

Some months ago vessels in Australia were glad to accept as low as 8s. to carry coal to San Francisco, and a few weeks ago, when 13s. 3d. was secured for vessels they thought they were doing remarkably The ruling rate is now 3s. higher than that figure, with still further adthan that ngure, with still further ad-vances expected. Coal from Australia is therefore liable to be scarce. The San Francisco coal market will be affected also by the fact that several coast-ers now carrying coal from the Sound to San Francisco will next spring be put on the run to Alaska. This will naturally raise freight rates on coal, and San Fran-cisco will suffer.
