It was from their settlement near Crooked Lake, 28 miles from Yorkton, that Silton's Spirit Wrestlers set out on their fanatical pligrimage, which has since attracted so much siteation. They started on Sunday afternoon, October 26, and made their first day's march of eight miles. At this time their numbers were variously reported as from 1,600 to 1,800 souls, men, women and children. Here the women and children were detained and housed by the authorities, and the men, some five or six hundred in num-ber, marched on, following a course parallel with the railway. Down to November 2nd they had marched a distance of 92 miles to Millwood and crossed the boundary into the province of Manitoba. Railway extending west-northwestward -The Concert of Europe.
