Great Sale of Fancy Wash Goods at M. R. A.'s. The ladies will be greatly interested in this extraordinary clearance sale of Fancy Wash Goods. It is an amazing offering of dainty and summery wash fabrics and will assuredly be the most important and extraordinary sale ever instituted. The goods must be sold as the room is required for new Fall goods in heavier weights; consequently prices have been placed low to attract attention to the most enthusiastic appreciation of the splendid values on every hand.

Cause of Disagreement. Jimmy Rogers, formerly catcher for the St. Peters baseball team, is the cause of a disagreement among the clubs forming the Inter-Society League. Trouble was expected to take place at the game between St. Josephs and St. Johns, which was scheduled to have taken place last night, but which was interfered with by the weather.

Officers of Macadamite Company. Rogers has played several seasons with St. Peters, and was with them until the last game in which St. Josephs figured. He was in St. Josephs uniform, and took the place behind the bat of Taylor, an Amherst man, who has been playing with St. Josephs during the season. St. Peters have another backstop in McGowan, but are unwilling to allow St. Josephs to strengthen their line up.

PRESENTATION TO PASTOR OF ZION CHURCH

The parsonage of Zion Methodist Church was the scene of a pleasant event last night, when a large portion of the congregation of the church made an informal call on the Rev. James Crisp. Up to last Friday it was not known whether the reverend gentleman would be with them for the coming year, but the District Committee fixed matters satisfactorily to all concerned—hence the celebration.

Received Address and Purse. Mr. Frank S. Purdy, superintendent of the Sunday school read the following address and presented Mr. Crisp with a very substantial purse.

To Rev. James Crisp, Pastor of Zion church, St. John, N. B. Esteemed Pastor:—On this your return to our circuit, we, the members of your congregation wish to accord you a hearty welcome back to St. John.

We are glad to know that you were the unanimous choice of the Quarterly Official Board, to minister to us for the fourth year. Your life-long devotion to the Master's cause has given you a warm place in the hearts of many to whom you have ministered, and nowhere has "the tie that binds" been stronger than in Zion church.

The bravest and noblest are not those who on gory fields "mid cannons' roar and trumpets' shrill blast" perform deeds of valor, but they who in life's stern battle, strive by word and deed to make the world purer, nobler and better. In you, our pastor, we feel we have such a worker.

May a gracious Providence grant you many years to labor in His vineyard, and when at last in the twilight of life "the silver cord" shall be loose, may your spirit depart as gloriously as a mid-summer sun, to rise in a land of endless day, and to hear the welcome words, "well done."

With kindest regards From Your Congregation, Mr. Crisp, although greatly taken by surprise, made a brief and appropriate reply.

Refreshments were then served and the gathering broke up at a late hour.

COLLIER & CO. HELD FIRST PERFORMANCE

Collier and Co.'s show opened its week's engagement in this city last evening when a large audience gathered in Victoria Bink to see the first performance. The show was an excellent one and reflects great credit upon the local parties who organized it.

Mr. F. C. Cooper formerly of St. John is Collier and Co.'s manager. Professor Manchester's ponies gave the audience fifty twenty-five minute acts which seemed almost human.

Boyer and Goreff in the trapeze were excellent and introduced some clever feats of their own origination. Orville and Frank performed in a clever balancing act. Orville held a ladder on the soles of his feet while the other climbed to the top and for ten minutes held the audience in breathless attention.

Fortin Brothers, the acrobats, gave some excellent new productions which were received by the audience with enthusiastic applause.

Harrison and Nelson the comedians sprang some new jokes which took well and sang some new comic songs accompanied by the company's band.

The Lite Dogs, two small well trained animals performed remarkably clever feats, one of them climbing to the top of a forty foot ladder and jumping into a net below.

Mile. Leoni in the aerial act and Chas. Orville the equilibrist cannot be equalled. Their performances were received by the crowd with great applause.

LEVEL TIME IN CHAPEL ST. ON SATURDAY

Chapel street was the scene of a rather lively row on Saturday last, at least John Gillford says so. At the close of yesterday afternoon's session in the police court, Gillford, who is a rather untidy individual, told his tale of woe to Police Clerk Henderson and laid information against Mrs. Sara Corrigan, her husband, John Corrigan, and his brother, Alexander Corrigan. The complainant was told to appear in court this morning, when the defendants will also be summoned to appear.

The complainant alleges that on Saturday last, without any provocation whatsoever, he was struck by the defendant. He was struck, he claims, with a shovel on the head, with such force that he was thrown to the ground and rendered unconscious. He remained unconscious for some time, and is at present feeling very sore, and in fact has not felt well since the occurrence. Sara Corrigan is not a stranger to the police authorities, as she has occurred in court on several occasions to answer a charge of drunkenness.

NO MISSIONARY WORK IN HOMES CHINESE HERE

The sensation caused by the murder of Elsie Sigel the girl missionary in the Chinese district of New York, whose body was found in a trunk in a room occupied by Leon Ling in Eighth avenue, has led a Standard reporter to make some queries regarding the missionary work among the Chinese in this city.

Elsie Sigel was in the habit of visiting the rooms of different Chinamen for the purpose, her friends supposed, of teaching them Christianity. Her family, believing her intentions good, saw nothing objectionable in this for in New York much of the missionary work is carried on in this manner.

No missionary work is done along those lines in St. John, however. In this city there are between fifty and one hundred Chinamen and although considerable missionary work is done here, it is all accomplished through and in the churches. Several missionary classes exist taught by prominent ladies who meet their Chinese pupils in the Sunday school rooms during the regular Sunday school hour. These ladies never visit the homes of the Orientals.

C.C.B. WILL GIVE CONCERT FOR AMERICANS

The City Cornet Band will give a concert in the King Square band stand this evening for the benefit of the C.C.B. of the American tourists who will be here and also of the Americans residing in the city. The programme will be entirely composed of American music and the Y.M.C.A. will no doubt take great pleasure in listening to a Canadian band playing their national anthem and rendering the leading American selections on the anniversary of the day on which they gained their independence.

The fourth of July however, will fall on Sunday, and for this reason the concert will be given on the Monday following.
