

happenings of the Week

With the return of sunny skies and real summer weather, "all the world and his wife" are living out of doors as much as possible. Those who are fortunate enough to own motors may be seen fairly flying hither and thither to country haunts, others are content with the more quiet jog of "old Dol" or two tables of bridge. Parents and children are much interested in the closing of the schools, the former greatly enjoying the careful training and work of both teachers and pupils, who are eagerly looking forward to well-earned vacations.

At the tennis courts on Wednesday a goodly number attended. The table, which looked very dainty, was in charge of Mrs. William Vasey, Jr., and Miss Kimball. Amongst those present were Mrs. Inches, Mrs. Murray and Miss Murray (St. Stephen, N. B.), Mrs. Percy Thomson, the Misses Nora MacLachlan, Edith Magee, Marjorie Lee, Minnie and Lou Girvan, Virginia Barnes, Jeannette Bridges, Walker (Florida), Jeanette Baird, Raimie, Clara Schofield, Messrs. Skinner, Harding, Merkle, Dunsley, Merritt, Peters, Vassie, Wetmore.

The closing of the Girls' School at "Netherwood," Rothsay, was attended by a large number of parents and friends from the city. The drill on the grounds under Miss Girvan's direction, deserves special mention. Rev. A. W. Daniel, who presented the prizes, spoke of the year's work as being very satisfactory. Dr. Walker of St. John, gave a very instructive address. The following graduates were present: Misses Nora Knight, Gwen McDonald, Mayant Walker and Mrs. A. Fowler, 1906; Misses Joan Ketchum and Mary Eastmill, 1907; Misses Vera Brown, Lily Raymond, Nora Robinson, Gladys Blair and Muriel Sadler, 1908; Miss Ursula Whalley, 1909; Misses Doris Murray, Minnie Hall and Alice Green, 1910. The former teachers present were Miss Helen J. Alvary, of Cambridge, Mass., and Miss Margaret Black, St. John. In the evening the "old girls" and teachers had supper at the Kennedy House, where the following were elected officers for the coming year: Mrs. Alexander Fowles, president; Miss Nora Robinson, secretary; Miss Nora Knight, Miss Mary Barnhill, Miss Lily Raymond, Miss Ursula Whalley, and Miss Alice Green, members of the committee.

The boys of Rothsay Collegiate School, including the "old boys" and their lady friends, had a very jolly dance on Wednesday evening in the college gymnasium, which was most artistically decorated for the occasion. Mrs. E. I. Sturdee, Mrs. Hibbard and Mrs. K. P. Foster were the chaperones. A large number from the city attended the closing exercises of the Rothsay Collegiate School, on Thursday afternoon. The presentations of prizes and diplomas took place in front of the college building immediately after the sports had been concluded. Addresses were given by His Lordship the Bishop of Fredericton, Rev. R. A. Armstrong, rector of Trinity, St. John; Dean Schofield, and Rev. A. W. Daniel, rector of St. Paul's, Rothsay. The prizes were presented by His Lordship the Bishop of Fredericton, Rev. R. A. Armstrong, rector of Trinity, St. John; Dean Schofield, and Rev. A. W. Daniel, rector of St. Paul's, Rothsay. The prizes were presented by His Lordship the Bishop of Fredericton, Rev. R. A. Armstrong, rector of Trinity, St. John; Dean Schofield, and Rev. A. W. Daniel, rector of St. Paul's, Rothsay.

At the golf club on Thursday the tea was in charge of Mrs. Carrington, Mrs. George L. Wetmore and Mrs. Jack MacLaren. Amongst those present were Mrs. Stetson, Mrs. Harold Schofield, Mrs. Andrew Jack, Mrs. James Jack, Mrs. Murray MacLaren, Mrs. deMille, California; Mrs. George Murray, Mrs. G. K. McLeod, Mrs. Wm. Harrison, New York; Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Thomas, Misses Stetson, Barker, Mabel Thomas, McGivern, Miss Anne McGivern, Miss Walker Florida, Mrs. Hooper, Stewart, deMille, Ross, James Jack Andrew Jack J. Thomas, Paul Longley, Dr. Magee.

Miss Robinson and Miss Coster, also the parents of the children who are instructed in their private school, were delighted with a French play, also a series of scenes from Alice in Wonderland in which the children took part.

Several of our society people assembled at the barracks on Saturday evening to witness the review of the troops by General Sir John French. The men presented a fine appearance, and all felt a thrill of pride as they gazed on such a goodly number, willing to fight, if occasion should require, for King and country. It is to be regretted that after a short inspection, owing to the continued rain, the crowds were obliged to disperse.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Boydell Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Jones, Miss Lou McMillan and Mr. Heber Vroom left on Monday for a week's fishing trip at Squirrel Cove, Sussex.

Parisienne Up-to-Date

This saucy little French girl is clad in the very latest style. Her broad hat of white chip is faced with black satin and crowned with a fluffy, feathery aigret—and she's wise enough to know just how well this background sets off her pretty hair and face.

Her gown of soft silk has the fashionable low cut neck, the smart little flat satin rose on the left front of her bodice, the popular close fitting crushed girdle, the always becoming chemise and cuff of dainty white muslin, and the very tight skirt, in which it is almost impossible to walk gracefully. Nevertheless, she must have all the latest touches—this saucy little French girl—so she includes the ugly tight and narrow skirt.

Mr. Charles E. Meyers left on Wednesday for Winnipeg.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bourque, whose marriage in Winnipeg was recently announced, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bourque, of Chatham, who are visiting friends here.
