ISTS "TALK" OF CIVIC AFFAIRS

Reporter Asked Vis-

Humorists For An In-

And This Is What

t.

ampton, of New York, and

er, of Yonkers, who have

ing the convention of news-

ists in Montreal, arrived yesterday. The famous lawyer was replying graceful to the man from Yonkers when the reporter

asked him to turn down

the scene and no doubt it was that he turned from humorist and began to talk.

"Well now, perhaps some of you chaps ought to have heard of me. I'm on, or he. The author of Yawps, And perhaps the greatest joker in the pack

of wit. I have a stack and I can speak

a week. And never say a serious thing

by jing.

"I've heard of St. John, and its funny ways. And I'm on. To a scheme.

That's a dream. I want the city to give me a site for a brand new industry. Tax exemptions and water free.

So I can raise in the glimmering haze

that drifts in from the sea, a splendide joke factory. I'll take the 40 acre lot And cut the terrible Gordian knot.

That the city fathers and C. P. R.

Have been laboring at with might and main. Till they scarcely know just which is what. And even sweet William tries in vain To show them

where they are."

At this point the author of Yawps paused for breath—or inspiration and

Mr. Oliver broke in:

"I'm Oliver A. Jollier and Mayor

Frink he sent for me to come to the city by the sea, and find out why his people are raving mad on the Main street paving. So I came and looked into the question, which is giving his folk indignation, and I'm bound to report that the joke is as good as a pig in a poke."

ACADIA'S PRESIDENT TALKS OF CHANGES IN COLLEGE EQUIPMENT

Work on Three New Buildings To Start Next Year.

Indications Now Point to Very Large Freshman Class—Accommodation of Buildings Will be Heavily Taxed.

Dr. G. B. Cutten, president of Acadia university, arrived in town yesterday.

"Oh, I have to come to St. John once in a while for inspiration," he said when asked if he had any business here.

"No, there's nothing much new," said the professor. "Our university fund is climbing steadily and next spring we hope to start work on three new buildings and a college dormitory."

We are having the plans for the grounds and the buildings prepared now. Our freshmen class next term will be larger than ever before; in fact we have more applications than we want, as our accommodation is pretty well taxed.

"Some changes have been made in the staff. Rev. W. L. Archibald, Ph.D., formerly field secretary has been appointed principal of the academy in place of Principal Robertson whose resignation the governors have regretfully accepted. Lanfrest Ruggles has been appointed house master in place of Joseph Howe who will go to Yale this winter to take a course in sociology."

"Our athletic department will receive more attention this winter than in the past, though I hardly think our teams will do as well as they did last winter. We have adopted a rule that no student who is behind in more than one subject will be allowed to represent the college on any team."

Sons, where he has been employed for some time past, his fellow-employees presented him with a well filled purse. Harry has always been very popular, and will be greatly missed by his young associates."

LAST DAY OF THE SUSSEX RIFLE MEET

Prizes Won During the Annual P. R. A. Meeting Presented Yesterday—Scores in the McAvity, Pugsley and Robertson Matches—Meeting Was Most Successful.

Sussex, Aug. 12.—Taking home two championships, two silver cups, a governor general's and a D. R. A. silver medal, a gold watch and about $200 in prizes, a record for one man on his first year at the range, yet that is what Sergeant I. F. Archibald, of the 3rd Regt. Royal Canadian Artillery, St. John, a try at Sussex, was presented with during the informal at home at the bungalow at the close this afternoon of the most successful meeting ever enjoyed by the members of the Provincial Rifle Association.

After tea and fancy biscuits had been served to the numbers of members and their lady friends grouped about the front of the bungalow, Col. H. H. McLean, president of the association took his position on the steps and the ceremony of giving prizes commenced.

In a short introductory address the president remarked that his attention had been called to the fact that G. S. Kinneer, 8th Hussars, and James Hunter, were then present who had been present at the opening meet of the association 44 years ago. He expressed pleasure that the guests had made such an excellent showing and that the executive committee had taken such steps as it had in furnishing suitable prizes. "I am sure that next year all the corps in the province will be represented," Colonel McLean concluded.

Prizes Awarded.

The nursery cup and prizes were presented by Capt. E. A. Barton. Corp. O. Dick, 3rd R. C. A. St. John, received the silver cup and money prizes were awarded to J. B. Powers, Grand Falls; N. R. Campbell, M. R. A. Florenceville; and J. M. Merritt, of Marysville, Capt. Barton also presented the maiden team prize to the Grand Falls R. A.

The second prize went to the 62nd Regt. Major G. S. Kinneer made the presentation.

The Dominion Cup was presented to E. P. Gladwin of the 62nd regiment, who is now owner. First money went to H. Crandemuir, 67th regiment, second to E. B. Hagarty, M. R. A., and third to M. Gladwin. Other prizes were awarded to Lt. S. W. Smith, 67th regiment, J. Z. White, Grand Falls and Sgt. Z. Campbell, 74th regiment.

What is said to be the most valuable presentation was made by Col. J. M. Humphrey, D. O. C., of the beautiful silver cup, donated for competition 44 years ago by the late King Edward and held in the same estimation as the King's Cup is at Bisley. Before making the presentation Col. Humphrey expressed pleasure at the large number attending the meet for the first time. The cup and first money were awarded to Lt. A. B. Maggs of the 74th regiment. Others receiving prizes were: Lt. D. R. Chandler, 74th; J. D. White, Grand Falls; Sgt. Major Lamb, 62nd; I. F. Archibald, 3rd R. C. A.; R. C. A. Brown, St. John and Capt. W. E. Forbes, 73rd.

The Hazen Cup was presented by Capt. James Manning, O. S. C., to the winning team from the 74th regiment, and second to Grand Falls R. A.

The Association Challenge Cup was presented by Major J. S. Frost to F. H. Price of Grand Falls. Others receiving prizes were: Lt. P. Clarke, 67th; Capt. W. E. Forbes, Sgt. I. F. Archibald, 3rd R. C. A.; Lt. D. R. Chandler, 74th; G. O. Maggs, Sussex; E. B. Brown, M. R. A.; and L. A. Langstroth, St. John R. A.

The McLean Cup was presented by the donor, Col. H. H. McLean. Col. McLean said that Sgt. Archibald had made the highest score of any meeting, the highest score of any meeting, a score of possibilities.

The handsome silver cup donated by the ladies for the ladies' matches was presented by Mrs. H. Perley, to whom the president announced was largely due the credit of collecting subscriptions for the cup.

N. J. Morrison presented the County Match Shield to its winner, the St. John County team.

Mrs. H. H. McLean presented the

Smith Cup to the St. Andrew's church cadet corps, and Major Watson made the presentation of the shooting bag to the individual winner, Pt. W. Welsford, St. A. C. C.

The Robertson trophy was presented by Capt. Manning to Sgt. I. F. Archibald, 3rd R. C. A., St. John, who made 141 points.

The Governor General's prize was presented by the president to Sgt. I. F. Archibald, 3rd R. C. A., winning over G. H. Price.

PRENTICE BOYS HAD BIG DAY AT CAPITAL

Excursion And Celebration In Fredericton Yesterday Proved Most Successful—Big Meeting Held.

The St. John lodges of Prentice Boys returned to the city on a special train last night from Fredericton where they had joined with the Fredericton lodges in celebrating the anniversary of the opening of the Gates of Derry. Leaving Fairville at 8.15 yesterday morning on a special train of eight cars carrying nearly 200, they arrived at Fredericton about noon. With ideal weather and a monster turnout the celebration was in every way successful. At two o'clock a monster procession of Prentice Boys and Orangemen was held through the principal streets of the city to Scully's grove. The parade was marshalled by Major W. H. Grey, of Marysville, and a grand master of the New Brunswick grand Orange lodge; Hon. H. F. McLeod, past grand master; William Rossborough, the eldest member of the Prentice Boys in Fredericton, and Captain Hargrave, a prominent member of the association. In the evening the St. John pipe band again passed through the principal streets, and at seven o'clock the entire party left on their special train for St. John, arriving here about 10.30.

P. A. Guthrie, worshipful master of Wilmot lodge, Fredericton, presided at the meeting at the picnic grounds and inspiring addresses were delivered by Rev. A. A. Yideout, grand master of the New Brunswick grand Orange lodge; Hon. H. F. McLeod, past grand master; William Rossborough, the eldest member of the Prentice Boys in Fredericton, and Captain Hargrave, a prominent member of the association. In the evening the St. John pipe band again passed through the principal streets, and at seven o'clock the entire party left on their special train for St. John, arriving here about 10.30.
