

WOMAN MURDERED FOR WEARING BATHING SUIT SLIT TO WAIST

Mrs. Charles Lanning Attacked on Beach at Atlantic City — Extreme Style Resented by Crowd — Trampled Under Foot and Unconscious When Rescued by Police.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 3.—Bathers who objected to the extreme style of her bathing suit attacked Mrs. Charles Lanning, wife of a hotel proprietor of Burlington, N. J., on the beach front here, and she fell unconscious before police and life guards could rescue her.

Mrs. Lanning, attired in a brilliant purple bathing suit, the skirt of which, cut extremely short, was slit clear to the waist, strolled leisurely onto the beach at South Carolina avenue. The holiday crowd numbered many thousands, and the section of the beach selected by Mrs. Lanning as the starting point for her promenade is by far the most popular.

As she stepped to the sand Mrs. Lanning coaxed her beside her a toy poodle, white except for the ribbon bow on his collar. It was purple, of the exact shade of the bathing suit. She was wearing several of the bathers caught sight of the belt suit and the toy poodle at the same time, but nothing happened until, leading the dog in leash, Mrs. Lanning stepped out of the crowd.

Thousands of bathers were congregated in the immediate vicinity of the hospital tent and practically every one of them joined in the shout that greeted the glowing revelation.

THAW LOSES BATTLE IN HIS FIGHT FOR LIBERTY

Continued from page one. Jerome had not a word to say. As if diving in advance that Thaw was to be forced out of the Sherbrooke jail, he preceded him here by automobile and was sitting in the machine gazing down the roadway when the car bearing Thaw how into sight.

When C. M. Hayes was in the city a few days ago the matter was taken up with him. Another question which was brought to his attention was the so called furtherance freight rate.

THE ST. JOHN MERCHANTS REASSURED

Owing to the fact that some of the local wholesale dealers were unduly disquieted by rumors that the Inter-colonial Railway freight department proposed increasing rates between here and points along the line and between Montreal and these same points, and that under the new schedule the St. John merchants were to be discriminated against, the matter was brought to the notice of the Board of Trade a few days ago and taken up by the traffic committee.

Table with columns: FROM ST. JOHN, FROM MONTREAL, Class, 1-6. Lists freight rates for various destinations like Sussex, Campbellton, Amherst, Truro, and Chatham.

After hearing the statement of the use he promised that the matter would be adjusted and it is expected that this matter will be satisfactorily arranged in the near future.

otherwise than at a regular port of entry shall be deported. The proceedings at Coaticook will probably take the usual form of an investigation by a board of immigration officials, whose judgment on the facts as generally known must be adverse to Thaw. There is a possibility in a certain case of an appeal from this board to the Minister of the Interior, but in view of the developments of the last few days, there does not seem to be any possibility of any advantage other than a day or two delay to be gained in this case by such an appeal, even if it were allowed.

FRANK MORAN KNOCKED OUT AL PALZER

New York, Sept. 3.—Frank Moran, the Pittsburgh heavyweight, knocked out Al Palzer of Iowa, in the seventh round of their scheduled twenty-round bout at the St. Nicholas Athletic Club here tonight.

In the second round he opened up a gash over Palzer's left eye with a right hook, and in the third after delivering a left jab under the jaw he sent lefts and rights to the jaw sending Palzer down for the count of eight.

In the fourth Palzer still played for the body and threw his whole weight on Moran's shoulder, trying to reach him, but Moran shook him off with left and right hooks to the face and left hand body blows.

In the next round Moran kept forcing the fighting and with two rights to the jaw in quick succession he knocked Palzer down again for a count of nine.

FAMOUS HOBO VISITS CITY

"S Idem Seen" Here a Few Hours, and Then Flits Away to Other Fields—Meets Reporter.

Everything was in a bustle at the Union Depot and vicinity early last evening, confused travellers rushing to and fro, and there passed through the station to the street an individual whose detection would have been the alarm for a general rush to the side of the mysterious personage, for he was no other than one of America's leading hobo men, who in his many years of travel has eluded many a shrewd cop.

you may think, at any rate to few was the identity of this visitor disclosed, and he walked through the streets unnoticed by the police.

A reporter was given word of the famous hobo's visit and was given an opportunity of talking with him.

"You are a reporter," said he. "Well, I do not object to talking with reporters as long as they agree to keep mum until I get out of the town, but it is a little early yet, and that kind of lets me down from saying much. I will tell you a few things, old pal, if you will not write anything until after the Halifax train leaves tonight."

"You are all right there, for the paper does not go to press till tomorrow morning," said the reporter, and the hobo let out a bit, but not just as much as the reporter would like.

"I used to live in England," said he. "Long ago I started on this adventurous life and I have travelled over 100,000 miles without paying a cent. I have been in every corner of the United States and have visited every state three times at least. Most people would imagine that my life is a hard one, but I find it one that could not be beat. I have seen more real life than the big guys do who do nothing but travel. You may be safe in calling me Robert Howley if you do not just get the name of 'Seldom Seen'."

UNCOVERING A BURIED CITY, SCIENTISTS CALLS MYTHICAL THEORIES OF A MOUND BUILDERS RACE

FRAGMENT OF POTTERY, THIS SHOWS BRAIDED CLOTH, PROBABLY MADE OF BUFFALO HAIR, IMPRESSED UPON OUTER SURFACE OF VESSEL

DAVID I. BUSHNELL, JR. David I. Bushnell, Jr., who for twelve years has been doing research work for the Smithsonian Institution, has uncovered a buried city near Ste. Genevieve, Mo.

Those who dwell in this primitive town three hundred or four hundred years ago, Mr. Bushnell says, were the first residents of Missouri. They were the original mound builders, according to the historians, lived ages and ages ago.

KILLS, THEN PLEADS THE UNWRITTEN LAW

Illinois Man Shoots Physician He Says 'Mistreated His Wife in Hospital'—Other Causes.

Cairo, Ill., Sept. 3.—Dr. E. E. Gordon, a prominent physician of Cairo, was shot and instantly killed tonight at St. Mary's infirmary by Harvey W. Fields, who fired two shots, one bullet passing through the physician's heart and the other breaking his jaw bone.

Fields gave himself up and is in the city jail. He says his deed was prompted by the unwritten law, because the physician mistreated his wife, who was in the hospital for appendicitis. "I couldn't stand it any longer," he is said to have exclaimed, "after my wife told me how she was treated."

Fields' mother died a week ago, following an operation for gall stones, and it was at first thought that this had prompted the deed, as Dr. Gordon performed the operation.
