

IX. The following objects shall more particularly engage the attention of the Society, as soon as their means may enable them to afford such attention:—

- 1.—Supplies of Books and Tracts from the stores of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, and none other, except in cases where other Books or Tracts, in strict conformity with the principles of the Established Church, and particularly adapted to local circumstances, shall first be carefully examined and approved by a Committee of revision, to be appointed by the General Committee,—the approval of which General Committee shall be necessary in the next place,—after which, the books must likewise receive the written approbation of the Bishop.
- 2.—Missionary visits to neglected and destitute places, under the direction of the Bishop.
- 3.—Upholding, by all possible and proper means, the Collegiate Establishments at Windsor.
- 4.—Assistance to deserving young men, desirous of being qualified for the Ministry of the Church, but requiring aid in pursuing their studies, at the Collegiate Establishments at Windsor.
- 5.—Aid to Sunday and other Schools, in which due attention is paid to instruction in the principles of the Established Church.
- 6.—Encouragement to the instruction and training of respectable Teachers for Sunday and Daily Schools.
- 7.—Assistance to the erection or enlargement of Churches and Chapels belonging to the Established Religion, in peculiar or extreme cases.

To these objects, generally, the general contributions will be applied; while contributors, who desire it, may have their individual contributions scrupulously confined to any one or more of these objects. And as some Members of the Church, who are not unmindful of the great spiritual wants in their own neighborhood, still feel constrained, in pious gratitude for the blessings they enjoy, to allot something, however small, from the means with which a gracious Providence has blessed them, towards the spread of the glorious Gospel among the nations which still sit in darkness—

X. This Society will gladly receive and forward to the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, whatever sums may be given for the conversion and instruction of the Heathen,—to which object such sums will be strictly confined by the East India Committee of that Society.

XI. Books and Tracts will generally be on sale, at cost and charges;—and whenever, in particular cases, a deviation from this
