WILLING TO RISK ONE.
The church services were proceeding successfully when a woman in the gallery got so entranced that she fell out of her seat and fell over the railing. Her dress caught in a chandelier, and she was suspended in mid-air. The minister noticed her ungraceful position and thundered at her: "Any person in this congregation who turns around will be struck stone blind!" A man, whose curiosity was getting the better of him, turned to the clergyman and said: "I'm going to risk one eye."

NOVA SCOTIA MAN KILLS MOTHER WITH AN AXE

Henry Sanford, of Belmont, Supposed to Be Insane, the Murderer—Is Now in Windsor Jail.

Windsor, N. B., Feb. 7.—A shocking murder was committed at Belmont, near Windsor today, when Mrs. Sanford, a widow, was killed with an axe by her son, Henry, who is supposed to be of unsound mind. Three hours after the murder the man, who is only twenty-one years old, was arrested on Water street. W. M. Christie, crown prosecutor, heard of it soon after the crime was done. He at once notified Police Commissioner to be on the lookout for the man who had stated his intention of coming to Windsor to give himself up. Conlon started out to look for him, and seeing someone walking along Water street, arrested the description of the man wanted, asked him if his name was Sanford, and if he was the man who had just murdered his mother. He admitted he was.

ST. STEPHEN TOWN COUNCIL ORGANIZES
St. Stephen, Feb. 7.—The first meeting of the newly elected town council was held last evening in the council room. All the members were present with Mayor Dinmore presiding. As this is a meeting at which there is always an element of uncertainty, the council chamber was well filled with spectators. The temperance people expected some expression of opinion in regard to the enforcement of the Scott Act from the council, but the meeting proceeded to business at once and appointed the following committees:
