

ing out the policy they advocated while in opposition. Earnestly desires to maintain 'British Connection' and to consolidate the Dominion, giving to each Province justice and equal rights, thus allaying sectional feeling, and securing prosperity and happiness throughout the land. In favor of opening railway connection with the great North-West without delay, that every facility may be afforded for its settlement. Will advocate the passing of a stringent election law, an income franchise, the use of the ballot, and Free Trade as far as the circumstances of the country will allow, that the burden of taxation may fall as lightly as possible on the great producing classes, the farmer, mechanic and labourer."—Peterborough, Ont.
