To Collector of Customs, Halifax, N.S.

"Re-entries 7005 and 7280—Mr. Mathers has presented an order to receive refunds on certain entries made by Mr. J. F. Masters, including No. 7005, but on referring to that entry I find it made by a Mr. Hegg, and, consequently, Mr. Masters' order is of no avail. The No. 7280 is all right, but as claim is on same sheet I have to deduct it also."

CUSTOM HOUSE, HALIFAX, 13th June, 1879.

W. G. PARMELEE, Esq., Ottawa.

SIR,—In sending you a lot of drawback claims, by this mail, you will please notice that several of the entries are from St. John, and those we cannot check. I. H. Mathers has power of attorney from the two parties who entered for duty and of those I send copies, the one attached to the entry and the other I enclose herewith. One of the claims made, formally was returned because wrong number of entry was made but the duplicate landing entry was not returned, so could only send merely a copy of said claim.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,
