

as to his qualification to be admitted as a Land Surveyor, shall give due notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the said Board, at least one week previous to the meeting thereof, and shall then pay, to the Secretary, as his fee for receiving and entering such notice; and each applicant obtaining a Certificate, shall pay to the said Secretary, Fee on receiving certificate.

10 as his fee upon the Certificate.

VIII. And be it enacted, That each applicant receiving a Certificate as aforesaid, shall pay to the Secretary a sum of Contribution towards the expenses of the Board.

15 currency for the same, out of which said sum, the expenses attending the examination of such applicant (if any) shall first be paid, and the remainder shall be divided equally among such Members of the Board, as shall have attended the examination of such applicant, and shall not be 20 salaried officers of the Government.

IX. And be it enacted, That each applicant after receiving the above mentioned Certificate, shall enter into a bond jointly Candidates admitted to give security, £250.

25 and severally with two sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the said Board of Examiners, in the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds currency, to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, conditioned for the due and faithful performance of the duties of his office, and shall take and subscribe the oath of allegiance, and the following oath, before the Board of Examiners who are hereby empowered to administer the 30 same:

And take the oath of allegiance and of office.

"I, A. B. do solemnly swear (or affirm, as The oath of office.

"the case may be) that I will faithfully discharge the duties of a Land Surveyor, agreeably to law, without favour, affection

40 "or partiality: So help me God."

And the said oaths shall be deposited in Deposit of oaths.

the Office of the Commissioner of Crown