

BRANCHES of the Vancouver Island Development League are situated at Alberni, Bamfield, Clayoquot, Colwood, Comox, Cumberland, Duncan, Fulford Harbor (Salt Spring Island), East Wellington, Holberg, Ladysmith, Nanaimo, Nitinat, Nootka, North Saanich, Oak Bay, Otter Point, Parksville, Port Alberni, Port Hardy, Port Renfrew, Quatsino, Ganges Harbor (Salt Spring Island), San Josef, Shawnigan, Shushartie, Sidney, Sooke, and Ucluelet, as well as the Home Branch at Victoria. All are in the Province of British Columbia.

Those wishing detailed information as to fruit-growing or farming conditions and possibilities in these parts of Vancouver Island are requested to write specially to the Secretaries of the Vancouver Island Development League there, naming the Branch of the League, as given above. All should have the letters "B. C." added to the address. Ask for prices of land, closeness to markets, rainfall, number of farmers or fruit-growers in the District, etc. Good roads and good schools are in practically all of the Districts.

Books of general information will be mailed free by the Vancouver Island Development League at Victoria. These include books on mixed farming and farming in all branches, and special books on poultry-raising, fruit-growing, shooting and fishing, maps of Vancouver Island, a book on the City of Victoria, and Victoria leaflet showing progress for past ten years.

Persons coming to Victoria to take up farming in the outside Districts will be furnished with letters of introduction to the Secretaries in the various Districts, who will show them over the Districts. There is no charge whatever for information, literature, letters of introduction, or any services to intending settlers at the Home Offices at Victoria.

The League has nothing to do with employment outside of skilled farm labor and white domestic help. Farm labor commands from $25 to $35 a month and board for skilled help, and from $10 to $15 for unskilled. Domestics get from $20 to $35 a month and board.
