

CHAPTER. XII.

Hell, or Final State of the wicked.

IMMEDIATELY after the Judgment Day, the wicked enter into Eternal punishment.

The name given to the state of the wicked after judgment, is Gehenna or in English version, hell, which means the world of future punishment.

The word gehenna is derived from two Hebrew words Ge. Hinnon. that is the valley of Hinnon a place near Jerusalem in which children were cruelly sacrificed by fire to Moloch the idol of the Ammonites. II Chron. 33 : 6. This place was also called Tophet. II Kings 23 : 10, alluding as it is supposed to [the noise of drums, [Toph meaning a drum] there raised to drown the cries of helpless infants. As in process of
