These studies of the conditions and outlook of Ireland were made during actual visits to Ireland, while the writer was abroad as Assistant to the Agent-General for Alberta in London, and all profits from its publication will be applied to the Fund for the purchase of the Hermitage (St. Enda's School founded by Padraic Pearse), which is now being collected by the Irish Nation.

The cover design of this book is by Aoife nic Aoda, of the Irish Decorative Art Association, Belfast. The Irish inscription means—"The Day is Breaking"
