

Andrew's, King, at ten o'clock in the morning, and after necessary business the Presbytery should adjourn, and spend the rest of the day in social fellowship with Dr. Carmichael and his congregation.

The object of this book is to preserve the memory of this celebration, which is almost unique in the history of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.