BAPTISM AND SALVATION

By Rev. James Roy, M.A., Montreal; L. E. Rivard, publisher. Price 15 cents.

We read in the Port Hope Times: "This is a pamphlet of 46 pages, written to promote unity of spirit amidst diversity of practice. In it the author, though not a Baptist, endeavors to do justice to the views of that body in a way that has not been common hitherto."

And in the Canadian Independent of August, 1882: "Thoughtful and tersely written, we commend it to all our readers. * * They who have the moral courage to look at the principle of things, will find fruitful suggestions in the words our brother has uttered, and a catholicity of spirit which should be the possession of all."
