THE MANGES OF AN AND THE MANGES OF AND THE MANGES OF AN AND THE MANGES OF AND THE MANGES OF AN AND

OF THE

OF ENGLAND

BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

Organized in Toronto, December 12th, 1874.

The mission of the Society is to bring into organized union all true and worthy Englishmen; to maintain their national institutions and liberties and the integrity of the British Empire; to foster and keep alive the loving memory of Old England, our native and Mother land; to elevate the lives of its members in the practice of mutual aid and true charity—caring for each other in sickness and adversity and following a deceased brother with traternal care and sympathies, when death comes, to earth's resting place.

Great Financial Benefits, viz.: Sick pay, Doctor's attendance and medicine and Funetal Allowance are accorded. Healthy men between the ages of 18 and 60 years are received into membership. Honorary members are also admitted. Roman Catholic Englishmen are not eligible.

Reverence for and adhesion to the teachings of the Holy Bible is insisted on.

Party politics are not allowed to be discussed in the lodge room.

Any further information will be cheerfully given by the undersiged.

JOHN W. CARTER, To Englishmen and Sons of Englishmen:

Party politics are not allowed to be discussed in the lodge room. The Society is secret in its proceed ings to enable members to protect each Shaftesbury Hall, other and prevent imposition-for

AIMS OBJECTS, AND BENEFITS which purpose an initiation Ritual is fidelity to the principles of the Society on all who join it.

The Society is making rapid growth and has lodges extending over Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific shores, having a membership upwards of 13,-000 at present, the ratio of increase being far greater as the Society's influence and usefulness is better known. Lodges have been started South Africa and will soon probably be started in
