Address and Presentation.

Last Thursday evening a number of the friends of Mr. T. Stanley, of McGillivray, met in town and made him the presentation of a handsome gold chain and locket, on the eve of his leaving for Detroit, where he will make his future home for a time. The following is the address and reply:

Mr. Thus, Stanley, Parkhill:

Mr. Thes. Stanley, Parkhill:

Learning with regret that you are about to remove from this vicinity, we, the officers and members of the C. M. B. A., feel it our duty to express to you in some tangible form our high appreciation of the valuable services you have rendered our society as a most active and exemplary member, and a most efficient officer, while discharging the duties of President of Branch No 128, recently held by you in it. Not only among us as a member of the C. M. B. A. have we recognized your sterling worth as a man and a Christian, but we see those entinent virtues exemplified in your daily walk and conversation. As a small token of the esteem in which you are held by us, we beg of you to accept this chain and locket, and we pray that in whatever sphere and duty of life your lot may be east, the richest blessing of heaven and an abundant share of happiness and prosperity may attend you.

Signed on b-half of the officers and members of Branch No. 128, C. M. B. A., at Parkhill, March 21th, 1892.

A. J. Garden, President.

Gentlemen and Brothers:

Gentleman and Brothers:

You have taken me altogether by surprise, and I feel quite unable to find words which will adequately express my feelings of thankfulness for the sentlments of brotherly love and respect contained in your beautiful address. I do not think that I deserve such parise. My services towards our society have not been such as might deserve any particular mention for they have been given with pleasure, as becomes as I kope, a true member of a society so charit able and unselfish in its object. The two years you have honored me with the Presidency of our branch have been terms spent with the greatest pleasure, and if I have filled the position with anything like success, it was due more to your kindness and partiality than to any executive ability of mine, which I feel I do not possess. Your beautiful present, gentlemen, I accept, and for it kindly accept my most sincere thanks. I assure you I will ever cherish it as a mement of our society and a token of traternal affection and brotherly love, which I am happy to say I have always found among you. I thank you again, gentlemen, for your beautiful address and presentation, and no matter where I may be, or what walk of life I may in future pursue, I will be most happy to hear not only of the success of Branch 12s, but also and particularly of each and every member of it.

It is learned that since the foregoing pleasing incident took place, Mr. Geo. Mathers, an old neighbor, who has rented Mr. Stanley's a folding his being adjacent to his own, presented him with a very fire silver watch, made acquaintance with Mr. Stanley, extending ove the last fifteen year, we know of no young man on whom such marks of appreciation could be more worthily bestowed.—Park-kill Rective, Marc's H.

Gananoque, April 6, 1892.

ED. CATHOLIC RECORD—At a regular meeting of Branch 79, C. M. B. A., Gananoque, held April 6, the following report, on motion of Second Vice-President D. Byron, seconded by first Vice-President James Donaghne, was unanimously adopted:

After careful consideration, reviewing the discussions which have been published in our official organs, and particularly those of Branch 31, Almonte, and Branch 43, Brockville, we have decided to remain as we are at present. Better reasons must be advanced before we will separate our fraternal relations from those who are dear to us and were the founders of our grand association.

We esteem our Grand President none the less for the course he has advocated; and we trust at the next convention this important question will receive due consideration and delegates from the different branches will bring it to a final decision.

Mrs. Post. Pickering.
One of the oldest settlers—Mrs. Post—of Pickering died on March 31, aged seventy-three. Her name, as well as that of her son, A. A. Post, is well known in this section. Her maiden name O'Reilly, of Cavan county, Ireland, is enough to show that she came of the good old stock. She settled in Pickering just lifty years ago, when Catholics were few and poor in this country, but she always held fast to her faith and by her virtues and example was, after God, the cause of the conversion of her husband, the late Asa Post. He was received into the Church by the late well known, dear, old Father Proulx, and shortly after died. At his funeral the late Bishop de Charbonelle and Father Maloney, one of the early priests of the Basilian order, assisted. The name of Post is well known in Toronto, they having been amongst the first settlers in Little York. Thus one by one the good old people are passing to their reward.

Mrs. Post's funeral was largely attended, and would have been still larger had it been any other day but Saturday, so great was the esteem in which the deceased lady was held by all classes and creeds. Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Father Leftcott, assisted by Father Walsh and Father Mc Brady, both of St. Michael's College, Toronto, as deacon and subdeacon, respectively. Father Murray played the organ and ably assisted the choir on the occasion. At the end of the Holy Sacrifice Rev. Father Mc-Brady preached the funeral sermon, and the many thronghout Ontario who have heard this eloquent priest may easily judge that he paid a beautiful tribute to the virtues of the venerable lady whom he had known all his life, having grown up in the same locality.

It is indeed fitting that we should show our respect and reverence to the good old Irish people who preserved the faith and did such good in their own spheres. For her charity to the poor and to the afflicted, no matter who they were Mrs. Post wis ever remarkable, and amongst priests and people her name will

John Watman, Point Edward.

John Watman died at Point Edward on Monday, March 28, in the thirty-third year of his age, leaving a widow and three children to mourn his loss.

Deceased had hosts of friends who heard of his death with sorrow. He was attended in his last hours by our respected pastor, Father Bayard, who administered to him the holy rites of the Church. He was a Color Sergeant in No. 5 Company, which attended the faneral in a body, under the command of their worthy Captain, J. F. O'Neil. That the blessed sight of Jesus may comfort him and His unfading glory shine upon him is our prayer and our hope.

We take the following from a Port Arthur paper, relating to the death of an old resident of London, Mr. Thos. Ryan. His many friends in London will read the notice with much London, Mr. Thos. Ryan. His many friends in London will read the notice with much regret:

Mr. Thomas Ryan died last night about 8 o'clock. His death was not unexpected to his friends, as it had been apparent for the past few days that he would have to succumb to the complication of diseases which were attacking him. He had been in Port Arthur for about eleven years, and during that time has rendered very many services to St. Andrew's Catholic church. At all picnics, concerts and such events he was the mainstay. He never tired in his efforts to make such events a success; and, indeed, it may almost be said that he never recovered from the cold he caught during the preparation for the late St. Patrick's concert. The deceased was from London, Ont. He had a very happy faculty of making friends, and all with whom he had dealings are mourning him as a friend. He leaves behind an enviable record for integrity and straightforwardness. He was fifty years of age.

He was acting as chairman of the Separate School Board, and deputy clerk for Ward 2. His last official duty was chairman at St. Patrick's concert.

On Sunday the funeral started from his late residence and proceeded to the church, where a solemnRequiem Mass was celebrated. After the service the remains were followed to St. Michael's centerry by a large number of friends and citizens. May his soul rest in peace!

A BOOK WORTH HAVING.

A BOOK WORTH HAVING.

A GREAT COLLECTION OF IRELAND'S NATIONAL SONGS.

The John Church Publishing Company of Cincinnati will shortly issue a volume entitled "The National Songs of Ireland." The collection is edited by the well known Irish author and singer, Mr. M. J. Murphy, and contains the best and most famous of all the Irish military and patriotic songs. Many-of them are here printed for the first time and are valuable for their rarity. All the old favorites are given a prominent place in the work, and those grand soul-stirring old songs, "The Sword," 'Clare's Dragoons," Lament for Owen Roe O'Neill," "The Croppy Boy," "Lament for Sarstield," "The Blackbird," "The Patriot Mother," 'O'Donnell Aboo," "Lament for Sarstield," "The Blackbird," "The Irish Rapparees," follow each other in rapid succession. The accompaniments of the songs have been arranged by some of the most famous musicians in the world, and while they are for the most part simple they are perfectly adapted to the melodies.

Mr. Murphy, the editor, is an Irish gentleman of high ideals and is probably the most crudite Irish musician in America. His collection of Irish music is one of the largest in the world and he has drawn upon this vast musical treasury for the selections with which this volume is filled. Considerable interest is attached to the work as it is the first really good collection of the Irish national songs ever published, and we are sure its appearance will be hailed with delight by thousands as it fills a long felt want. The book will be retailed at $1.

INFORMATION WANTED.

Editor Catholic Record, London:
SIR-I have received a letter from Mrs. Catherine Savell, Block B., Banstead Asylum, Banstead, Surry, England, asking me to endeavor to obtain information as to the whereabouts of her son, George Joseph Savell, who came to this country in August, 182, in charge of some Catholic children sent out by Rev. Father Syddons, Archbishop House, Westminster. I have ascertained that Savell was in the employ of the Canadlan Pacific Railway Company at Ottawa, and that he left here early in the fall of 1883, to work on the construction of the railway at or near Sudbury, but since then I can find no trace of him. If any of your readers know anything of the missing man they will perform a charitable act by communicating their information either to me or directly to Mrs. Savell. Savell, if alive, would now be about thirty. This enquiry does not of course, come within the scope of the Catholic Truth Society, but having been written to by Mrs. Savell I am anxious to help her.

Yours truly.

ULSTER AND HOME RULE.

It is not necessary for anyone to accept literally the threat of Irish Orangemen like Colonel Saunderson to carry fire and sword through Ulster if Home Rule is adopted after the next general election. The professional leaders of the Orange body are in the habit of making extremely foolish vows whenever things do not go well with them and their ascendancy. They blustered and fumed and talked of civil war when Parliament was engaged upon Catholic Emancipation sixty years ago, and were equally bloodthirsty when it took hold of the tithe question. "With Henry II." said Sydney Smith, "came in tithes, to which, in all probability, about one million of lives may have been sacrificed in Ireland." In French Canada tithes are collected by the Catholic Church from Catholics alone, but in Ireland they were wrung from the Irish Catholic Church from Catholics alone, but in Ireland they were wrung from the Irish Catholic peasant for the support of the Protestant Establishment. The Orange leaders professed to regard the removal of this injustice as a great wrong to the Protestant religion. Later on, the abolition of the Established Church, the first of Mr. Gladstone's Irish measures, made them still angrier, and there was talk of manning the ditches with riftemen and fighting to the death for the preservation of a state of things of which every intelligent Orangeman must have felt ashamed. In Canada, at the passage of the Rebellion Losses Bill, the visit of the Prince of Wales and on other occasions the Orange leaders contrived to make themselves ridiculous by breathing saltpetre, but of recent years when disturbed in mind they have displayed more sense. Ulster is not likely to suffer from the creation of an Irish Parliament charged with the administration of local affairs; on the contrary, if it is wise, the Catholic majority will treat her with the utmost generosity if only for the sake of reland, not even Connaught, is more largely Celtic. While the other provinces were receiving a straem of Anglo-Norman or English settlers

Montreal, April 14—It is impossible to report any change for the better in grain. The pro-longed stagnation still prevails, and values are in some cases declining. We quote: No. 2 hard Manitoba wheat, 91 to 57c; No. 3, do, 81 to 57c; peas, per 67 lbs, in store, 72 to 75c; oats, No. 2, manitons wheat, '916 36c; 'AO, 3, (6), 81 to 87c; peas, per 65 lbs, in store, 72 to 74c; oats, No. 2, 32t to 33c; yes, 91 to 93; feed barley, 42 to 15c; malting barley, 57 to 62c. Trade is quiet in feed; bran is worth 815,59 to 816; shorts, 816 to 817; and mouillie, 320 to 823. Trade is perhaps a slightly, better tone in the flour market, and feed; bran is worth $15.59 to $16; shorts, $16 to $17; and mouillie, $20 to $23. Trade is perhaps a slightly better tone in the flour market, and some sellers report more enquiries, but the general disposition is still only to cover immediate requirements. We quote; Patent spring, $5 to $2.9; patent winter, $4.90 to $5.00; straight roller, $4.00 to $4.50; extra, $4.15 to $4.25; superfine, $3.90 to $4.00; fine, $3.30 to $3.55; strong bakers', $4.60 to $5.90. The trade in oatmeal seen to look for still lower prices, and but very sparingly. As a consequence the market remains depressed under the influence of heavy stocks. We quote; granulated, bbis, $3.55 to $3; rolled, bbis, $3.95 to $4; standard, bbis, $5.85 to $3.90; granulated, in bags, $1.82 to $1.55; stolled, bbis, $3.95 to $1.55; standard, in bags, $1.85 to $1.99. Provisions—Although business does not often as yet exceed retail proportions, an improvement is noted in the demand, and sales are more easily made at quoted rates. Prices are as follows: Canada short cut mess pork, per bbl, $15 to $15.50; mess pork, American, new, per bbl, $15 to $15.50; mess pork, American, new, per bbl, $15 to $15.50; hams, city cured, per lb, 109 to 11c; bacon, per lb, 98 to 10c; lard, compound, 74c to 73; lard, unre Canadian, $2 to 9c. Cheese is having the jobbing demand, which has been usual of late, and for finest goods level show the idea. The Liverpool cable declined this morning to $50 od. There is a moderate domestic trade in butter at unchanged prices. Receipts of new dairy are not more than sufficient to meet the current wants of the retail trade. We quote: creamery, 21 to $20c; townships dairy, 20 to $20c; western dairy, 17 to 18c. There is a good demand for eggs at 12g to 12c.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

April 11.—CATTLE—Trade was somewhat demoralized by the heavy supply, and sales were draggy from the opening of the market to the close. A few loads of extra choice "Easter" cattle sold fairly well and at good figures. The supply of these, however, was limited, and after they had changed hands the market was a very dullone. For a load of cattle of this kind, averaging about 1.225 lbs, 42c was paid, which was the highest figure of the day. The prospects are anything but bright for next week, as by noon quite a nucuber were unsold, and will probably be held over. Inferior and rough cows and oxen sold at 24 to 3c, fair to good heifers and steers at 3 to 31c, good to choice butchers' steers at 31 to 32c, extra choice picked lots do at 4 to 42c.

Milch Cows AND Springers—About 20 offered, and by noon all but two were sold, but at somewhat lower prices than were paid at the beginning of the week. A f w were bought for Montreal, and there was some enquiry from dairymen for good fresh-calved cows. Prices enerally ranged from s30 to 80 per head.

Stockers and BULLS—One load of the best stockeds seen on the market this season, averging about 1,100 lbs, sold to-day for 4c per lb. The demand continues active for good animals, and dealers will pay liberal prices for such. One load of 10, averaging 1,030 lbs, sold for S3,60 per cwt. A number of bulls offered, but were mostly bunched in with cattle, selling at 23 to 33c per lb. One exceedingly fine animal, weighing 2,200 lbs, sold at $3.57 per cwt.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—About 400 offered, mostly lambs. The averaging 1,030 dyearlings sold at 6c, and more of the same kind would have found ready sale. Sheep sold at 33 to 44c. A few spring lambs offered, selling at $4.59 to 7 a head.

CALVES—With about 150 on the market and a good many of these light veals, the feeling was decidedly weaker. One bunch of 33, averaging 13 lbs, sold at $5.55 per cwt. (feed and watered). Stores sold at $4.55 per cwt (feed and watered). Stores sold at $4.55 per cwt (

It is but a little time, and we shall keep Easter in heaven; yet a little while—what matters a little while of white-what matters a little while of sorrow, of care, toil, or weariness, hardness, and solitude, repentance and striving, temptations and pationce ?-Cardinal Manning.
