Synopsis of Canadian North-West HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

ANY even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.
Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the district in which the land is situate. Entry by proxy may however be made at any Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.
DUTIES.—(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.
(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. He may also do so by living with father or mother, on certain conditions. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.
(3) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the Agent for the district of such intention.

At the invitation of the rector the parishioners of Alderley recently gave the ancient church a good spring cleaning. On hands and knees they scrubbed away at the pews, panelling and floors, and their operations caused no little amusement. The rector was prevented from joining in by other business.
Mrs. Durham, living in the village of Offenham, near Evesham, has just celebrated her hundredth birthday. She was married in 1836, and had seven children, five of whom are still living. She has twelve grandchildren, thirty-six great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren. Her husband died in 1894 at the age of 84. Mrs. Durham has never overcome her objection to railways, and has only been two railway journeys in

On Easter Eve several members of the congregation gathered together at the parsonage, Kirkcudbright, Scotland, for the purpose of presenting Miss Fannie Wilkinson of The Grange with a small dressing bag replete with furnishings and her monogram engraved on all the silver stoppers. Miss Wilkinson has been the honorary morning organist for some time, and has also taken a very active part in the Sunday School and Home and Foreign Missionary work. The presentation was made to her on the eve of her leaving for the Continent. Deep sorrow was expressed at the thought of her leaving them, for she was much beloved by all.
