USE the TELEPHONE

IF IT WAS RAINING—
you would not care to go out for your purchases. Naturally you would use the telephone. Then why not use the telephone on a hot day, or, in fact, on any day, at any time. The merchants using this page extend to you a cordial invitation to make as full use of their phone service as you can. They want to demonstrate their ability to give you perfect service in this way. It means a saving to you, and should be an advantage.
