POPULAR KENTVILLE YOUNG LADY MARRIED AT KANDY IN CEYLON.

The following clipping from The Times of Ceylon gives an account of the marriage of Evangeline, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Simpson of Kentville. Miss Simpson has a host of friends who regret her departure from Nova Scotia but wish her every happiness in her new home.

Boustead—Simpson.
Kandy, Feby. 2nd.

Marriage took place at 10.30 a. m. today at the Scots Kirk of Mr. R. Claude Boustead, of Meegama, Wategama, son of Mr. R. Boustead, also of Wategama, with Miss Evangeline Simpson, Nova Scotia, who arrived in the island two weeks ago. The church had been prettily decorated with Up-country flowers, while arum lilies adorned the altar. The bride was prettily dressed in plain white satin with a train also of satin, which hung down from her shoulders. She wore the tulle veil with orange blossoms, and carried a lovely shower bouquet. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. E. G. Simpson, of Mandalagiri Kande, Wategama, and had as maid-of-honor Miss Gladys Boustead, who was also plainly attired. The bridegroom had Mr. Gilbert Mackwood, of Raxawa, Wategama, as best man. The service was fully choral, and was conducted by the Rev. J. Faulds. The usual wedding hymns were sung, and at the conclusion Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played.

A reception was held at "The Manse," kindly lent by Mrs. Faulds, and the toast of the bride and bridegroom was enthusiastically pledged. Those present were: Mr. R. Boustead, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cruickshank, Mr. E. G. Simpson, Miss Simpson, Mrs. Coran, Miss Conran, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert James, Master Kenneth James, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gibbon, and the Rev. and Mrs. I. Faulds.
