RESTIGOUCHE

CIRCUIT COURT.

Campbellton, Mar. 12 The Circuit Court concluded its sitting at Dalhousie Thursday afternoon.

There were three criminal cases. The King vs. McDonald.

The King vs. Kerr.

The King vs. Chinnour.

Much interest was taken in the case of the King vs. McDonald. This was for indecent assault. The defendant, it was alleged, had for some time been in the habit of waylaying young girls, chasing them and taking hold of them. He was arrested and at the magistrate's court sufficient evidence was submitted to warrant his being sent up for trial. At the court trial only one witness, besides the chief of police was examined and the material evidence, in the opinion of the jury, was not sufficient to convict. A. E. G. McKendry, Esq., was for the defence.

The King vs. Kerr—This was for theft. The accused was charged with taking $95 from a passenger on the Maritime Express some time ago. He was arrested, and practically admitted his guilt. The jury found him guilty but recommended him to the mercy of the judge. Mr. A. E. G. McKendry, his lawyer, who handled the case very cleverly, produced letters and telegrams from Chatham parties, where Kerr belongs, stating that he always bore a good character and under these circumstances the judge sentenced him to five months in the Dalhousie jail, with hard labor.

In the case of the King vs. Chinnour the jury acquitted him. A. T. LeBlanc for defendant.

JUSTICE MISARRIED

(Campbellton Graphic)

The acquittal of Jack the Huggon, is certainly a miscarriage of justice.

That Jack was guilty of serious offences against several young ladies in town, there is not a shadow of doubt, and nothing should have been spared to prove the charges against him. At the examination before the magistrate a number of witnesses positively identified McDonald, and the evidence was sufficient to justify the magistrate in sending him up for trial.

In conducting the trial the crown seems to have made a serious mistake. Instead of making the complaint against McDonald appear to have been arrested on the information of one young girl only, and she was the only witness called. At the trial this witness was not able to positively identify the defendant, and it appeared that he had not treated her as roughly as he had done some others.

Why this young lady was singled out of a number we are not in a position to state, but from the surface it seems that it was done to spare the feelings of several worthy daughters of worthy Campbellton families. While this is natural, yet we think that it is the duty of every right thinking citizen to uphold the law, even though it be a somewhat unpleasant duty.

One thing is clear, a rogue has been allowed his liberty, and we would suggest, much as we regret to have to do so, that the fathers of the abused girls form themselves into a committee and give the villain a severe horse-whipping if he ever shows his face in Campbellton again.

OBITUARY

MRS. CLIFFORD MCKAY.

On the evening of Thursday, March 11th, Mrs. Clifford McKay, of Moncton, passed peacefully away at the early age of 22 years.

The circumstances of her death are particularly sad. Only a little over nine months ago Mrs. McKay was a bride, and already death has claimed her. She leaves an infant child and an almost heart-broken husband.

On Friday morning a service was held in Mr. McKay's home, Moncton. This service was conducted by Revs. S. D. McDermid and R. H. Staver.

The remains were brought to Harecourt on the noon train on Friday.

On Saturday at 2 p.m. the funeral service was held at the home of Mrs. McKay's father, Mr. Jonathan Gail, Trout Brook. The service was conducted by Rev. R. H. Staver.

The funeral was one of the largest ever seen in that section of the country. Interment was in the Mill Branch Presbyterian cemetery.

Deceased was a young woman of very estimable character, well educated, a school teacher before marriage, and on the threshold of a promising career, when death called her up higher. The bereaved husband and family have the sympathy of all who know her.

Owing to the town's account at the Bank of Nova Scotia being overdrawn to a large extent, the mayor and treasurer of Chatham have been authorized to borrow $25,000 for use until the taxes come in, that money may be had for the town's financing.

Legislation will be asked at the coming session of the New Brunswick Legislature to permit Daniel Donohue of Newcastle, to assume and adopt the name of Bryan Hennessy.

SIGNALS OF DISTRESS.

Newcastle People Should Know
How to Read and Heed Them.

Sick kidneys give many signals of distress. The secretions are dark, contain a sediment.

Passages are frequent, scanty, painful. Backache is constant day and night. Headaches and dizzy spells are frequent.

The weakened kidneys need quick help. Don't delay! Use a special kidney remedy.

Booth's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, backache, and urinary disorders. Newcastle evidence proves this statement.

Mrs. Archie Wright of Green St., Newcastle, N. B., says:

"My back was so sore and painful that I could not stoop to lace my shoes and I suffered constantly with dull, sickening headaches. A dull, bearing down pain had settled across the kidneys and caused me so much suffering that I could not sleep or rest anytime. I became weak and run down and my eyes were sore and felt as though they were filled with particles of sand. I tried Booth's Kidney Pills on recommendation of a neighbor and they cured me of each and every symptom of kidney trouble. I used Booth's Kidney Pills also and I have never had to use a cathartic of any kind since. I had used many different constipation remedies but had not found other than temporary relief. My son, Robert, had suffered all over the country for kidney trouble but found no relief until he had used Booth's Kidney Pills. He is stronger and better in every way. Booth's Kidney Pills have certainly been a blessing to our home and I am glad to tell other sufferers what they did for me."

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School

Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

March 21st, 1909.

Review.

Golden Text. They that were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word. Acts viii.

The following review scheme can be used with profit by all the newspaper clubs who are taking up the Bible studies, whether having actually studied the eleven lessons here reviewed, or only one of them, or whether this is the first lesson which has captured a reader's attention for while it is a "review," it is also complete in itself.

The date and title of each lesson and where found, the Golden Text, and one question on each lesson follow.

Jan. 3. Acts i:1-11. The Ascension of Our Lord. Golden Text: Luke xxiv: 51. It came to pass while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

Ver. 10, 11. Would the coming of the Spirit of Jesus on the day of Pentecost, be the return of Jesus as these two men meant?

Jan. 10. Acts ii:1-21. The Descent of the Holy Spirit. Golden Text: John xiv:16, 17. I will pray the Father and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever, even the Spirit of Truth.

Ver. 4, 12. An educated ministry is desirable but which will make the most converts, a man with fair intelligence and a common school education, filled with the Holy Spirit, or an university graduate lacking that experience?

Jan. 17. Acts ii:22-47. The beginning of the Christian Church. Golden Text: Acts ii:42. They continued steadfastly in the Apostle's doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread and in prayers.

Ver. 22. How is it that Jesus has impressed himself upon the world as no other man has ever done, and that He has swayed the hearts of the lowly and mighty alike, and that His influence is increasing with the years?

Jan. 24. Acts iii:1-26. The Lame Man Healed. Golden Text: Acts iii:16. His name, through faith in His name, hath made this man strong whom ye see and know.

Ver. 6. Need the lack of money or ability, ever prevent any man from doing the work in life, which God has appointed him to do?

Jan. 31. Acts iv:1-31. The Trial of Peter and John. Golden Text: Acts iv:18. They were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

Ver. 13. What effects and power are in the power of the Holy Spirit, whether in solemn prayer, or in the daily life of the Christian?

Feb. 7. Acts x:1-43. The True and False Baptism. Golden Text: Prov. x:1. Lying lips are an abomination unto the Lord: but they that deal truly are His delight.

Ver. 33, 34. Is it sufficient to God a sincere and short prayer of amen?

Feb. 14. Acts xiv:1-18. The Apostles Imprisoned. Golden Text: Matt. x: 10. Blessed are they which are persecuted for right reasons sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Ver. 19-20. Is it true that the heretics of one generation have been the saints of the next?

Feb. 21. Acts xv:1-35. Stephen the first Christian Martyr. Golden Text: Acts xv:1. They stood Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.

Ver. 11, 12. What is a man with right views of truth, yet angry at the man with wrong views and persecutes him, which the Bible makes with meanness, which is worthy the name of the Holy Spirit?

Feb. 28. Acts xvi:1-40. The gospel in Samaria. Golden Text: Acts xvi: 6. The people with gladness gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

Ver. 11. Is there any evidence to believe that there are or ever have been, persons with powers obtained by witches, conjurers, mediums, and similar fakery?

March 7. Acts xvii:1-31. Philip and the Philippians. Golden Text: John xv: 31. Search the scriptures, for in them ye think ye have eternal life, for a they are they which testify of me.

Ver. 24. May any person, who is not playing double, or triple, safely trust the forward word to direct us to outward circumstances?

March 15. Acts xviii:1-18. Aquinas and Diogenes. Golden Text: Acts xviii: 31. And Petersaid unto him, Aquinas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole, arise and make thy bed, and be as yet immediately.

Ver. 36-38.—How do you classify those who content themselves with going to church and prayer meeting, and talking, and praying, but are not following Jesus, in going about doing good? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)
