Religious Fract Society's Publications.

The publications.

The public are despectfully informed, that the publications of the Lordon Religious Fract Society are now sold for each at the back store of Mr. G. T. Thazard. The jacks has been much enlarged by recent importations, and many works of the best English drivines will be found on their shelves—The Parent Society has also entrusted this Committee with aix Libraries to be sold at half price to Sunday Schools. These libraries nembering from 80 to 1000 volumes, can this be parchised for £25 cy. As it will masterially advance the interests of religion amongst our scattered application to have grants of books, towards, the formation of libraries and the establishmont of Sanday Schools, especially in the country parts; it is, expectly, hoped that Christian friends, will, help as with their subscriptions. A few pounds subscribed now, would canable the Committee to do much towards supplying the most destitute settlements with annual, witnessome religious reading. Mr. Habbard, the depochary, is instructed to receive any gentributions, however small—and will keep an accesses of the same,

They all tend to become or produce the deep seated and formidable distensives which load the hearses all over the land. Hence a reliable family physic is of the first importance to the public health, and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand. An extensive trial of its virtues by Physicians, Profesors, and Patients, has shown results surpassing anything hitherto known of any medidine. Cures have been effected beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted, position and character as to forbid the suspicion of unpiruth.
