WILL NOT HURT THE CANADIAN SPORTSMEN

High Cost f Sporting Goods Will Have no Effect on Local Devotees

St. Catharines sportsmen who are exponents of baseball and other athletic games, need not worry over the proposed tax on athletic goods which will go into effect this summer on all goods manufactured in United States. Enquiry by The Journal elicits the information that most of the sporting goods used in Canada are manufactured either in Canada or England and hence will have no effect on the Canadian public. A. G. Spalding, who supplies a great deal of the sporting goods used in St. Catharines, and other parts of Canada, has factories in Brantford, and Montreal and will be able to cope with the demand although it may be necessary to import the better kind of baseball bats from United States. Golfers, however, may have to pay a slight increase on golf balls and golf clubs if they cannot get the necessary material from England.

In the United States golf balls which have sold during the war will advance from 10 to 25 per cent and golf clubs will here after bear price tags from 15 to 25 per cent higher than last year. Local golfers should make it a point to buy only golf balls that are manufactured in Canada, or if they don't they will be paying a slight advance. Producers in their spring lists quote golf balls that sold last season for a dollar each from $1.05 to $1.25, although a few maintain the old price. It is likely that the tax will be paid by the purchaser in addition to the cost of the ball.

St. Catharines folks, who are devotees of the golf links, can compliment themselves on the fact that Canada is as yet not affected by the tax on golf balls, or if they were they would be dipping down into their pockets and will be paying about a dollar for golf balls that formerly retailed at 85 cents. The fifteen cents advance may not seem a great deal to some "eccentrics," but they hardly consider the fact that all their "brothers" are not as accurate shots as they and hence require several "golf pills" to play a game.

The funeral of the late Maple Rose daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rogerson, took place from the family residence, Metcalfe street, on Wednesday afternoon, to Lakeview Cemetery. Rev. Canon Piper, Rector of St. John's Church officiated at both the house and graveside.
