Macdonald Afraid of the Blous-The North West Question Looming Up.

OTTAWA, March 1 .- There is every reason to expect that the present ses lon of Parliament will be a short ore. There are no important measures, and the Government does not want to de anything to provoke criticism so soon before a general election. Today it a reported that the Finance Minister will be ready with his budget speech of Priday next. Referring to the proposal to send sol diers to the Northwest to guard a minst an Indian rising, Sir John said on Tues

"We have said that we will endeavor to pretect the settler; so we will, and probably to even a greater extent that the case warrants. We must indeed be if anything over cantious. If we are not we will be blood-guilty.

Sir John's caution comes late; better late than never. The best protection to the settler is a rolley of justice to the Halfbreeds and Indians. Sir John was Indifferent and similar than the left Dewdney in charge of the Indians, when he be stowed Half breed lands upon Meags. the trial which he alluces to ahove.

Mr. Blake said he hoped there would be no delay in bringing down all the information and papers asked for. The tovernment had no excuse.

It appears that Sir John Medonald's priginal idea was to put up one of his french apporters to move a straight resolution condeming the Government for executing Riel. It has been discovered that such a resolution was prepared by Sir John Macdonald himself, and Mr. Landry of Montmagny, who is proprietor of Beauport Asylum and therefors dependent upon the Provincial Government of Quebec, was selected to move it. A more diagusting piece of trickery was never attempted than to find the leader of a Government would then be more embarraseed by such a motion than the Government would then be more embarraseed by such a motion than the Opposition, and so he changed his plans and no amendment to the Address was moved.

Mr. Landry has since given notice that he will, on Friday, move:

"That this Bouse feels it is duty to express deep regret that the sentence of death passed upon Louis Riel, convieted of high treased upon Louis Riel, convieted of high treased upon Louis Riel, conviete of high treased upon Louis Riel, and the C
