

In the Assembly.

A Sitting Full of Public Interest.

Much interest centered in yesterday's sitting of the House of Assembly inasmuch as the Government's Agricultural Policy was the theme of debate and was severely criticized and ably countered by Sir Robert Bond, Mr. Kent and other members of the Opposition. An important petition was presented from Rt. Hon. Sir Robert Bond from Rev. James White and other residents of Grand Falls for better postal facilities at that place. The present building was put five years ago by the A. N. D. Co. to be used temporarily, is a small cramped place and totally unfit for its purpose. Sir Robert advised that the importance of the town with its population of 2,000, and stated that the building, which not only serves as a post office but a telegraph office and Savings Bank, is only 12 by 15 feet. It is impossible to conduct business there. To show how important the place is Sir Robert stated that its revenue is the largest perhaps outside of St. John's. For the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1909-10, the sum of $100,450, and to December 31st, 1910, $84,506.56 were collected, and there was reason to believe that this would amount to $200,000 by June 30th, 1911. He thought, therefore, the Government should take immediate steps to put up a suitable building.

The Premier said the Government had noted the necessity for this but had found it difficult to select a site and to get a building large enough to accommodate all the public offices. He promised the Government's attention to the matter.

The Explosives and Education Bills were passed and sent to the Legislative Council for its concurrence.

The Crown Lands Bill was deferred at the request of Sir Robert Bond, who had to get some statistics as to it from Mr. Kent, who was then absent, but took his seat later.

AGRICULTURAL RESOLUTIONS.

Here Sir Robert Bond, when the House had gone into Committee on the Agricultural Resolutions, made the eloquent speech which appears elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. Dwyer in a speech remarkable for the biting sarcasm imparted into it and the effective quips used by him when interrupted, scathed the extravagant agricultural policy of the Government, showing that the whole island policy imported were useless to farmers, being vicious and unfitted for work; and that bulls costing $120 and $130 each were of an inferior breed. He said Government members motto was, "You take this and I'll take that." No Liberals would get the free seeds or pigs that the Minister of Agriculture would give out.

Mr. Blandford here interrupted: "Your talking politics," when Mr. Dwyer retorted, "You're in the middle of them, and the politics they are too." He then referred to the free lime the Minister was to give out in small packages covered with Soling paper for the destruction of canker. A good deal of it, however, must be held to whitewash the Government. It is thought that so much lime will be needed for this that orders will have to be duplicated. Mr. Dwyer then referred to the aspersions which the Premier had cast upon him the other day in debate and showed that he feared no brow-beating or bullying from the Premier, and spoke with such independence and spirit that the galleries thundered their approval. Mr. Dwyer said he made his way through life honest and fair. The fearless attitude of Mr. Dwyer as to resenting insult and calumny directed against him brought the Premier to his feet.

PREMIER REPLIES.
In a speech which became impassioned as he proceeded, Sir Edward said that the language he had used towards Mr. Dwyer was spoken in the heat of debate and under stress of a rebuttal of a charge he (Sir Edward) had made untrue. Hence the Premier denied having made the contracts of 1898 and 1901, as he alleged Mr. Dwyer had insinuated.

MR. BLANDFORD SPEAKS.
He (Mr. Blandford) took up the cudgels in defence of the Government's agricultural policy, and some more or less acrimonious passages at arms occurred between himself and Mr. Dwyer to the evident delight of the occupants of the galleries affording a view of the arena.
In speaking of lime, Mr. Dwyer observed that the Government were using it for potato canker, but that a good deal of it should be applied to the Government party to eradicate the canker of corruption and extravagance evident in it. Mr. Blandford said that some of it would be good for Mr. Dwyer's place, when he retorted that if Mr. Blandford walked over his (Mr. Dwyer's) farm he would have to lime it again. Mr. Blandford's speech was a lengthy one in which he endeavored to justify the whole agricultural policy of the Government and the payment of $1,800 each per year to Messrs. Downey, Seymour and Devereaux.

MR. KENT SPEAKS.

Mr. Kent followed in a lengthy and logical address, holding that the development of our inland resources if ever brought about should come through the Department of Agriculture and Mines, which had under control the other industries allied to agriculture, viz., the development of our mineral resources, and the care, protection and development of our forest resources. Upon the proper management, development and care bestowed on these depended the country's future. The policy of the Government did not tend towards this. If the country was to become prominent in agriculture we should follow the lines laid down in the Experimental Farms Act of 1908. From the establishment of Model Farms in the Dominion of Canada dated its present great progress in agriculture. If our Model Farm or Experimental Station had been conserved, results equally satisfactory as those of Canada would have been noted. We had everything to recommend the development of that policy—the experience of experts and practical men, and it was a pity that it was marred. Canada had to undo the work of 30 years by a mistaken policy in the past, and if the policy of the present Government here is pursued it would be seen in the course of a year or so that it will be necessary for us to act similarly—start all over again and commence the policy instituted by the Bond Government in 1908. The expenditure under this head last year was $50,000, a vote of $20,000 and over of $30,000, while they asked for a straight vote this year of $40,000. Mr. Kent said this was being squandered and re-undone little to the Government's credit. Three members of the House are receiving $1,800 per year each; the Legislative Disabilities Act was specially repealed and amended to enable these men to sit on that Board with no special fitness for their duties. They should have resigned their seats before coming under the pay of the Government. These men voted to repeal the Act, which was the only protection the people had against legislators being in the pay of the Government and then voted for the very amendment which gave them $1,800 per year each. Mr. Kent thought this conduct a disgrace to the country. Mr. Kent brought forward many telling points as to the unwise policy of the Government, and after recess continued his speech; after which Mr. Blandford replied, followed by Mr. Dwyer, who was in turn followed by the Premier, who tried to justify the appointment of Messrs. Devereaux, Downey and Seymour by quoting precedents established by the Whiteway, Thorburn and other governments in appointing members to act in various capacities and who received remuneration.

Rt. Hon. Sir Robert Bond made another eloquent and forceful reply to the speech of the Premier, followed by Mr. Devereaux, when Sir Robert moved the following amendment to the Resolutions which on division was lost.
"Section 3 of an Act for the encouragement of Agriculture, 1910, of 10 Edward VII, Cap. 18, is hereby repealed, and henceforth Chap. 4 of Consolidated Statutes (second series) shall apply to any persons who may be appointed members of the said Boards, including persons heretofore appointed, or who now are members of said Board."

Children Had Eczema

Treatment prescribed had no effect—DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT made thorough cure.
Mrs. Cesar Vancott, St. Antoine, Eack, writes:—"I have found Dr. Chase's Ointment to be a permanent cure for Eczema and other skin diseases. One son, while nursing, broke out with running watery sores all over his head and around the ears. Many salves were prescribed to no effect. The child's head became a mass of scabs and he suffered agony untold. He became weak and frail and would not eat and we thought we would lose him."
"Provisionally we heard of Dr. Chase's Ointment and it soon thoroughly cured him. He is seven years old now and strong and well. An older boy was also cured of eczema by this Ointment and we hope more people will learn about it so that their little ones may be saved from suffering."
As a cure for eczema and itching skin disease there is no treatment to be compared to Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box, at all dealers of Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Dr. Chase's Recipes sent free.

Efforts to Save Women From the Electric Chair.

Boston, Feb. 27.—A state-wide crusade by women was started to-day to save from the electric chair Mrs. Lena Cusumano, who was convicted of the murder of her husband yesterday at Plymouth. Governor Foss will be asked to commute her sentence of death to imprisonment. The Governor to-day intimated his course of action. "I always feel lenient towards a woman in trouble, and I would be awfully sorry," he said, "to see a woman electrocuted in Massachusetts."
Since he has been in office Governor Foss has pardoned two life prisoners.

He threw the first two but struck a tartar in the third. With a crotch hold and a half Nelson he downed Fritz Mohl, a Swiss, in 7 minutes, 46 seconds. With a half Nelson and the hold he put Yankee Rogers of Buffalo on the mat in 16 minutes, 28 seconds.
The third man was William Demetral, the Greek. Gotch worked hard, but the Greek was both strong and agile, and the twenty minutes passed without his being thrown. During
