

Interesting Notes From H.M.S. Sirius.

When the Sirius was north this trip the officers had some nice fishing in White Bay. They killed one deer. Two other officers are yet out and will walk to the railway station later to join their ship. They are after caribou.

We learn by the ship that the fishery will be a fair one down around the French Shore. Hare Bay the average is 200 to 450 qtls. At Goose Cove two traps there had from 200 to 450 qtls.

Locke's Cove.—Only three families live there. They have from 300 to 500 qtls. The ice was very late on the coast but it had the effect of driving the fish inshore and the officers of the ship think that good hauls have been made since they left the coast.

Schooners at Burnt Island up to the time the ship left averaged 200 to 400 qtls. At Cape Bauld and St. Anthony the fishery is a blank.

What's in the Paper?

The paper tells of wedding bells and bridesmaids blushing; of men who waste their lives in haste, upon their foolish errands running of politics and ringsters' tricks. Of Windy Jims with schemes unending; of griefs and cares and sighs and prayers, and mothers of sick children bending. The paper tells of prison cells where human junk is softly herded; of church and pew, where I and you hear helpful sermons, aptly worded; describes the den where broken men have heard the doors of hope shut; clanging; describes the hall, where on the wall a hundred priceless prints are hanging. The paper speaks of ugly leaks discovered in the nation's coffers; of noble schemes and rosy dreams, and of the sneers of rascal scoffers; of queens and kings, of all the things that chance on earth, in prose or verse; of pain, relief, of joy and grief and farewell tours of sable hearse. We read it all—the stories tall of native stunt and foreign caper—with brooding eye, and fiercely cry: "Great Scott! There's nothing in the paper!"

"Does Things With a Pen."

Among the visitors in town this week are Miss Edith S. Watson, of East Windsor Hill, Connecticut, U.S.A., and Miss Victoria Hayward, of Bermuda. Miss Watson is an artist who has made frequent visits to our island. This year she and Miss Hayward, who "does things with a pen," as Kipling says, have taken the trip to Labrador. They were passengers by the s.s. Kyle and were of the party who signed the letter presented to Capt. Wm. Parsons, with an enlarged photo of himself and officers, with a group of passengers taken on the bridge of the Kyle by Mr. Parsons, in appreciation of his uniform courtesy and skillful seamanship throughout the voyage. Both Miss Watson and Miss Hayward are enthusiastic over Labrador and pronounce the trip a delightful one, and think it should be more widely advertised. Miss Watson secured many photographs along the coast. She has also a fine collection of Newfoundland pictures, many of which have already been used for book and magazine illustration in the U. S. and Canada.

Your Duty.

Nothing to do with the Custom House, good friend. Its only reference just now is to yourself. Let us suppose that you are a man of family with sufficient of the world's goods to keep them in comfort. Very well. You did not reach this satisfactory state of affairs without care and labour—few men do. Suppose you are awakened some night with shouts of alarm ringing in your ears. Too late then to talk of prudence; too late then to say: "If I had only, etc., etc." That "if" means too much to many forgetful people. Is it not always the duty of a self-respecting citizen to protect his home and thus provide for those within it. Is it any more than his duty to those depending on him to protect them as far as possible? Can you call your property your own when it is not insured? The answer to this argument is to carry insurance with Percie Johnson's agency, the most popular office in Newfoundland and the least expensive.

The Cornwall Here.

H.M.S. Cornwall arrived here yesterday from Hare Bay and will remain for a couple of weeks. On leaving here she will go to Halifax, Bermuda, Tenerife and Gibraltar, later sailing to Plymouth. The Cadets on board are enjoying themselves well and several of them are about the city to-day.

Political Pointers.

Watch what happens next November.

We won't do a thing to him. We mean to E.P.

The West End is gone on him already. Former friends are present enemies. Brutal treatment never kept friends.

"Where is now the merry party I remember long ago." Very few of 'em around now for the Premier, and it is said he made this sad soliloquy a couple of days ago.

There was a good deal of betting on the possible outcome yesterday. Lots of Liberals were about and put up their money freely and fearlessly. Odds were 5 to 1 on Bond.

The cry about the city is now Bond and Coaker must win. This combination has knocked the Grabbal party silly. Morris's Day is Done.

Opens on 24th.

Keating, Miss Kathleen Farrel, daughter of Captain Farrel, of Harvey Road, Miss O'Dea, daughter of Mr. J. V. O'Dea, and quite a number of others. It is an institution which has become quite popular with Newfoundlanders.

She took her supplies to-day and when she gets 300 qtls. more she will abandon the voyage. During her spring trip she was high in the fleet out of Lunenburg, landing over 1,400 qtls. The men hope to share over $230. The vessel is a new one and built on very handsome lines. She is 99 tons register and has a crew of 19 hands.

PRESCRIPTION "A."

Very Highly Recommended by An Outport Man.

Please send me by mail 1 large bottle of Stafford's Prescription "A". Enclosed you will find 50 cents, also 17 cents for postage. You sent me a trial size a few days ago and it almost cured my wife. Another 50 cent bottle will make a cure. I have tried doctors and all kinds of medicine, but I don't believe that there is any medicine that can cure a bad stomach like STAFFORD'S PRESCRIPTION "A". I am more than thankful that ever you advertised this medicine. Please forward as soon as possible, as I am waiting anxiously for it.

Again a Winner.

As the Telegram stated a couple of days ago, Const. Patrick O'Neill would be a likely man to win in the shoot yesterday for the Police Medal, with Sergt. Noseworthy running him hard for first place. O'Neill won easily at ranges of 200, 500 and 600 yards; he scored 78 points. Sergt. Noseworthy shot up 60 points. Conditions were not good the wind being high and a poor light. Const. O'Neill is a capital shot, and this is his fifth time to take the police prize. We heartily congratulate Constable O'Neill on his good work, and hope that the future will have other victories in store for him.

Enjoyable Outing.

One of the most pleasurable events which occurred yesterday, was the outing of the Odd Fellows. At 2:30 p.m. over 200 went out by train to the Octagon where they spent a most enjoyable time. Mr. Poole served a dinner which would tempt the palate of an epicure and during the afternoon various games were indulged in including a cricket match, married vs. single, in which the single men won out. At night there was a dance which all heartily enjoyed. The return to town was made at 2:30 this morning.

Torbay Garden Party.

The Garden Party at Torbay yesterday, was attended by a large number of people not alone from that section of the country but also from St. John's. The grounds where the Garden Party was held were bedecked with bunting and a very pleasurable afternoon was spent. Tea was served and financially the affair was a complete success. The Mayor and those who assisted him deserve congratulation.—Mr. Kent was present.

Restaurants.

A restaurant is a place frequented by low-spirited husbands and people who are not in the habit of refusing food in any form. The cheaper grade of restaurants are also frequented by the most pestilential variety of fly on the domestic market, which is continually dropping into somebody's coffee and trying to swim to shore.

Restaurants are run for the purpose of making money for the proprietors and also to provide a haven for male guests whose home life is in need of repairs. As this happens to practically every American citizen on wash day, restaurants are crowded on Mondays with depressed husbands and fathers decorated with splints and bandages.

A short order restaurant is a resort where you can get whatever happens to be left the same day you order it. Nearly all of the short order consist of two sinkers and a cup of ale or coffee. The advantage of this system is that a full-grown man can eat himself into a close resemblance to a complex on fifteen cents' worth of menu.

The a la carte restaurant is an expensive proposition which makes a specialty of serving meals with a time-lock attachment. It is nothing uncommon for a guest who is not in a hurry to order a planked whitefish it one of these restaurants, at the lunch hour, and not be able to fold up his napkin until the curfew strikes.

When a restaurant puts on a three-piece orchestra and a few pointed palms, it is called a cafe and resorted to by the indolent rich. The bill of fare at a cafe is printed in the French language so that nobody can tell what the food will taste like until the waiter has disappeared. It also has a vine list which causes total abstinence to shake their heads in mournful accents.

Cafe food is served by the portion. A portion is enough to founder a large sized family, while a half portion wouldn't slow up the appetite of a samary bird. On this account, very few people order half portions nowadays unless they have just risen from an adjacent banquet.

Unique Dish.

The city of Durham is said to be built on seven hills, to have seven churches, and to be famous for seven things. Regarding these seven things for which celebrity is claimed, while there is no doubt about six of them, the seventh is somewhat uncertain. The six are wood and water, saw and gospel, old maids and married. In quite recent times, however, mustard "has gone." The old maids are still with them.

Coming across an old manuscript cookery-book, one could perceive amongst other recipes a very unique one which was termed the "Durham Pie." This is a compound of so many good things that if it is not named amongst the seven things for which the good old city is famous it certainly should be. The recipe is as follows:

Take 7 lbs. flour, 1/2 lb. suet, 2 lbs. butter; form into a paste, mould it so fancy, so as to make a handsome ornamental crust, and bake in a slow oven. Then take a goose, a turkey, a grouse, a woodcock, a pheasant, part of a hare, a partridge, 1/2 lb. of bullock's tongue. Cut these in small pieces, stew gently, and then place in the centre of a crust with the gravy and some grated ham or beef, season to taste, and bake in a slow oven. Of course the top is covered with paste, ornamented, with feet of birds in a central crown, and foliage, etc., around them.

Varicose Veins and Itching Piles

Usually Arise From Same Cause—Relief and Cure Effectuated by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Nearly everybody knows of Dr. Chase's Ointment as the most effective treatment for piles or hemorrhoids that medical science has been able to compound. So much suffering and misery arises from this ailment that one is not long in telling his friends when he has found an actual cure. This accounts for the enormous sales of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

This letter tells of relief from the suffering of varicose veins by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Many suffer from this trouble not knowing the comfort to be obtained by the use of this great soothing ointment.

Mrs. R. J. Evans, 187 Munro street, Toronto, writes: "We have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for years. I have been troubled with varicose veins, and find it the only thing that gives relief. For every purpose when a soothing, healing ointment is needed there is nothing so good as Dr. Chase's Ointment. It cures a box of all doctors, or Edmanston, Bester & Co., Limited, Toronto."
