JOHANNESBURG, To-day. The siege of the Trades Hall where Secretary Bain of the Federation of Trades and band of his supporters are deflying the police from behind the barricade, constituted the main feature of the strike drama yesterday After the Hall had been raided by the police yesterday morning withou avail, great crowds gathered and the police were compelled to make several bayonet, charges, owing to the aggressive attitude of the police many of whom were slightly injured. With a final bayonet charge, the police cleared the entire neighbourhood and a cordon of police with fixed bayonets was thrown around the hall. A bomb explosion occurred to-day at Benone, slightly injuring three mounted troopers. Living Statues.

The prettiest sight ever seen is the beautiful tableau of living statues at Rossley's. During the evening the large audience showed their appreciation by rounds of applause. Blue Beard Pantomime seems to be in great favour. Jack Rossley is, of course, the chief fun-maker; his song, "Has Anybody Here Seen Me," in which he impersonates an actress who has lost her memory, it's a scream and when he goes through the audience looking for himself-or herself, it's too funny. There is some high class singing by Louise Arkandy that shows the shows the true artist. Mrs. Rossley has in hand our child-hood's hero, "Robinson Crusoe," also a great Scotch pantomine entitled "Bonnie Mary McIndoo.."

At the Crescent.

The "Stolen Idol and Honor" and he "Sword," two strong dramas, followed by "Jealousy of Jane and Belmont" two strong roaring comedies, was the picture bill at the Crescent Picture Palace, yesterday, and the bill was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audiences who witnessed it. Mr. David Parks sang "Then You'll Remmeber Me," and was accorded a splendid reception. The same programme is repeated to-day. For Friday and Saturday a specially selected list of pictures and song will be exhibited. On Saturday afternoon a grand matinee will be given for the ladies and children.
