This mountain is more than 6,000 feet high, and is one of the outposts of Trent. In attempting the advance on Trent, the Italian forces have before them a long and difficult task. From the top of Mount Panorotta down the Tenna Pass is a succession of forts and entrenchments, extending for more than twenty miles, connected by underground underground passages, built last September.

LONDON BUDGET.

LONDON, Aug. 22. Italy's declaration of war against Turkey is expected to have an almost immediate effect on the Balkan States which are still debating which side they will take in the conflict. Relations between Italy and Roumania for years have been very intimate. The opinion is expressed here that it is probable, especially in view of the threatening attitude of the Germanic owers toward Roumania, because of her refusal to allow ammunition to pass through her territory, that now that Italy has brokekn relations with Turkey, Roumania will join the Quad-ruple entente. Bulgaria is still wait-

The President's note to Germany in February last was an excellent one, if only it had been lived up to. But every subsequent note represented nothing but weakness and timidity on our side. The sinking of the Lusitania and Arabic represent the arrogant answers which will care nothing for mere severance of diplomatic relations. The time for words is passed for this nation, long passed. The time for deeds has come What has just occurred is fresh and lamentable proof of the unwisdom of our people in not having insisted upon beginning active military preparedness thirteen months ago.'
