drama, entitled "The Lion's Mouse." This is a mystery melodrama just suspense. It shows a mere slip of a girl who plays the role of an amateur Detective, who goes through all sorts of trying situations until she has finally cornered a wicked and notorious gang of blackmailers.

"The Lion's Mouse" was produced the Hollandia Film Corporation and directed by the popular director, Oscar Apfel. The charming Marguerite Marsh and the handsome Wyndham Standing play the leading roles. The balance of the cast is exceptional. The question of thrills in the motion picture has been one of great discussion. The director who has been able to make the biggest thrill with the least danger to life and limb has been accorded unlimited praise. Last Chance to See the "Eternal Three"

FAMOUS STORY WILL BE REPEAT-ED TO-NIGHT.

"The Eternal Three," a Goldwyn picture, directed by the celebrated Marshall Neilan from his own original story, was presented last night at the Majestic Theatre, and held the audience spellbound with its clever acting, intensely human, modern theme

Of course, with such famous players as Claire Windsor, Hobert Bosworth, Raymond Griffith, Bessie Love, Tom Gallery, William Norris and others in the cast, it is a superfluity to describe the acting as excellent, but it truly was.

With the meticulous adherence to details which has marked "The Strangers' Banquet" and other big Neilan productions, Marshall Neilan presents several remarkable scenes the ranch scenes, which were "shot" The fall programme of entertain- in Mexico, the Bryce Canyon scenes,
