Fatted Calf Brings $20 For Red Cross

After James Learn's sale near Dexter, which by the way, was a success, Mr and Mrs. Learn entertained a select party, including Manager White-side, of the Bank of Commerce, Auctioneers Locke and McLachlin, E. A. Smith and W. R. Carnwith. Mr. Learn entertained with the gramophone, and Mrs. Learn served tea and refreshments in the hospitable style for which South Yarmouth is so greatly celebrated.

At the sale there was great competition for the fatted calf, which was donated for the benefit of the Red Cross fund. The calf was purchased by Lewis Jones for the high price of $20, which was turned over to Mrs. Millman of the Red Cross Society.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Learn.
