BARKWELL'S BRONCHIAL BALSAM.

Dear Sir,—I wish to testify of the merits of that grand preparation known as Barkwell's Vegetable Healing Bronchial Balsam. I was told by a neighbor what a grand Balsam it was. My little girl was very ill with bronchitis, and a very few doses restored her and I believe saved her life. I feel it my duty to let others know that they also can be cured of this terrible affection.

LONDON AND PRECINCTS

The storekeeper sighed as he stood at the door.
"Things will be better in the winter." Then farmers will come in and buy out the store.

Oh, things will be better in the winter. But winter has married the tropical zones. The storekeeper's borrowed unpayable loans. The bailiffs are in and the storekeeper moans—
"Hane it, what happened to the winter?"

A flock of wild ducks was seen flying southward over the city yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Marvin Knowlton, lumber merchant of Wilmette, Conn., formerly a well-known business man in this city, and a strong temperance advocate, is visiting his London friends.

At Osgrade Hall yesterday, in the case re Young mortgage, Webb (Deputy, Chisholm & Co.), for the London and Ontario Investment Company, obtained an order for leave to pay money into court under the Trustees' Relief Act.

Mr. George M. Reid, of Reid Bros., of this city, who purchased the feather-bone works, of St. Thomas, was in that city Tuesday, arranging for re-opening the factory at once, which will be known as the Canada feather-bone factory.

A Winnipeg dispatch says: Mr. Bedson, warden of Stony Mountain Penitentiary, denies the report published in the London Free Press of the escape of George Garnett from the penitentiary a few weeks ago. Garnett, who lived in London a few years ago, is now working in the penitentiary as a tailor.

The Young Liberal Minstrels held a meeting last night to lay plans for the trip to Toronto on Monday week. The party will leave in special cars on the G. T. R. at 7:45, going via Stratford and returning next day through Hamilton. Every evening this week and next week will be taken up by one to three sections of the show in rehearsal. Considerable enthusiasm is manifested among the members, and, as the President remarked, "Our intention is to give a performance of which Torontoites will not think in the same breath as of the Hamilton minstrels. We have the talent, and we'll give them the finest show ever seen in that city." Full rehearsals were announced for Tuesday and Thursday evenings of next week.

After a Deserter.
Private John Palmer, of "D" Infantry School, London, deserted last summer, and was never heard from until a short time ago, when he was seen on the street in Surinam by one of the boys of No. 7 Company who attended the school the same time as he did. Last Monday he telegraphed to the commander of the school, saying, "Private J. Palmer is here; do you want him back?" The school was well. He got an answer saying, "Yes; keep him; will send escort after him tomorrow. Yesterday two soldiers arrived in town looking for the deserter, but he took the hint, and left a note at the Belchamber saying he would meet his comrades in Uncle Sam's dominions.—(Surinam Canadian.)

Why the Church Is Weak.
Bishop Baldwin, in addressing the Young Men's Christian Association at the Bradford convention, said: "The reason the church of to-day is poor, weak and in many instances a comparative failure, is because its ministers and members are alike weak, poor and spiritually dead. The secret lies here—want of spirit power. The Holy Spirit is the life of the church, and it is the enemy with God. He advised the young man to be out and out for God; it needs being willing to lay down their lives for their Lord and Master. With the church needs today is not money, rank nor honor, but Holy Ghost power. Get this power, young man; God will give it you; but you must be willing to go to the uttermost length to get it. Wait upon God for it, though you should spend the whole night on your knees before him. If the Apostle John was alive to-day and spoke to you to-night the power of the Holy One through him would make your hearts bow as the trees of the forest, because he had power with God. Christians half full never run over. Young men, stop at no life in business. Be as a fire set on fire for God."

A Parting Gift.
The regular monthly gathering last evening of the Ladies' Mission Circle connected with Adelaide Street Baptist Church was marked by an unusually interesting incident. The routine business of the evening had been concluded, when previous to singing the closing hymn Miss Lottie McLeod, secretary of the circle, announced that she had a short paper to present, and addressed the retiring president, Mrs. (Rev.) # ROYAL

ALL WEIGHTS
STANDARD
POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low-test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in this Royal Baking Powder Company, 106 Wall Street, New York.

It would soon astonish the Christian world with its achievements. Rev. H. D. Hunter, the pastor, was to have read a paper, but being indisposed had forwarded the manuscript, which was read by Mr. H. B. Ashplant. The subject of it was, "The Bible, the Source of the Spirit, and How to Make It Become Such to Us." Mr. J. M. Johnston read a paper on "Christian Training and Work" which was replete with excellent matter and elicited some very thoughtful discussion at its close. A spirited song service lightened up the programme, in which was included a quartet by the Misses Reason and Messrs. Chapman and Jones.

Missionary Meeting at St. Paul's.
The Bishop of Huron presided at the Anglican missionary meeting in St. Paul's Cathedral last night. He appealed for help in the support of missionaries throughout this diocese, whose salaries are so exceedingly limited that an exodus of the clergy was threatened. The farmers were overburdened with mortgages and needed help. They were also in need of earnest young men, and he wished to encourage any who thought of going into this work. Canon Davis followed with a short address, in which he showed that the prosperity of those who gave one-tenth of their income was increased. Canon Richardson also rejoiced that from Alaska on the west to Labrador on the east and the Arctic Ocean on the north the Gospel was being preached on this continent. Rev. R. McLeod, of Petrolia, who arrived during the service, said he had a practical illustration of the fallacy and weakness of the theory which teaches that so long as a man is sincere in his belief it mattered not what he believed. He had been perfectly sincere in his belief that the train left Petrolia for London at 3 o'clock, but had gone to the station and found no such train there. Despite his sincerity he had been left behind. It was the duty of Christians to see that the heathen had the Gospel preached to them—to make their belief proper. He also gave an interesting account of the perseverance of missionaries in the New Hebrides and other places. There was a large attendance and the collections taken were liberal.

An Interesting Report.
On page eleven of Bulletin No. 10 of the Land Revenue Department, which has recently been issued, Prof. A. McGill, of Ottawa, who has had charge of the exhaustive analysis of baking powders for the Government, remarks in reference to the material baking powder, that "this is an excellent powder, etc. This is a very flattering testimonial, considering that the majority of baking powders in the market are condemned by him as being unfit for use. Baking powder containing Alum and Phosphate, Prof. McGill remarks, are entirely objectionable and ought not to be allowed a place in any well-appointed bakery. As the cost of imperial baking powder is very little more than the numerous cheap adulterated goods referred to, consumers are fit to find to their advantage to use 'imperial' which they can depend on as being always reliable and the best possible to be had." ywt

The post who asserts that his life is but a dream was never called upon to help move a stove, or get a barrel of cider down the cellar stairs.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.
Furniture dealers always have plenty of spring goods on hand.

Mr. J. R. Allen, upholsterer, Toronto sends us the following: "For six or seven years my wife suffered with Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Inward Piles and Kidney Complaint. We tried two physicians and any number of medicines without getting any relief, until we got a bottle of Northrop & Lynch's Vegetable Discovery. This was the first relief she got, and before one bottle was used the benefit she derived from it was beyond our expectation."

The old hen cackled on her nest in praise of her endeavor. And, clucking to herself, she said: "It's better for it than never."

Castoria is the children's panacea—the mother's friend. 25 doses, 35 cents.
