Saturday, Nov. 2, 1895.

London and Environs

—Mrs. Geo. Russell, Chicago, nee Miss Jessie Bennett, London, is visiting Mr. Frank Holman, Simcoe street, city.

—To a Correspondent.—Premier Bowell will be 73 years of age next month; Sir John Carling will be 69 next January; Sir Hector Langevin will be 71 next August.

—After a successful pastorate of five years, Rev. P. A. McEwen, B.A., formerly of this city, has resigned the pastorate of the Baptist Church in Windsor, N. S., to resume pastoral work, probably in Ontario. Before locating anywhere he has engaged to give a few weeks service to the Grande Ligne Mission.

—Mr. McMaster, of Hamilton, who contributed so much to the enjoyment of those that attended the recent concert at St. James' Church, South London, has made many friends here. His flute solos were especially fine. His various numbers, though extremely difficult, were given with ease both surprising and delightful. His execution evoked a storm of applause.

—The King Street Methodists are anticipating a good time at their church anniversary on Sunday and Monday week. The Rev. Dr. Gifford, of Wingham, will preach and lecture. The rev. gentleman is reputed to be a master in descriptive eloquence, and as his subject is to be "The Wonderful Mammoth Cave of Kentucky," which he personally explored, many will doubtless want to hear him. See advertisement next week.

—Lady Stanley Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 1, held a box social and assembly in the Duffield block last night, which was fairly well attended. Mr. E. T. Essery occupied the chair during the programme, which comprised an instrumental solo by Mr. George Watts, songs by Miss King, Mr. Johnston, Mr. A. Quinton and Mr. James Bentley, and recitations by Messrs. Harry Roberts, J. E. Showler and W. Cheasley. The boxes were auctioned off by the chairman, who had as clerk Mr. Alf. McCoubrey. The evening was concluded with a dance.

—Donations for October are gratefully acknowledged by the trustees of the Convalescent Home as follows: Mrs. Ford, books; Mrs. Graydon, men's hats; Mr. A. Beck, two loads of wood; Mrs. J. P. Piper, ornaments; St. Thomas Church, Walkerton, flowers; St. Paul's Christian Endeavor, fruit; Memorial Church teachers' entertainment, cake; Mr. Coulter, potatoes, vegetables and citron; Mrs. M. grapes; First Congregational Literary Society and Dundas Center Methodist Church, reading matter; Mr. J. E. Boomer, confectionery; Mr. Keenleyside, reading matter.

—The Epworth League of the Colborne Street Methodist Church gave a concert last night, the proceeds of which will be given to the Sunday school improvement fund. The programme was of unusual merit, and was deserving of a much larger audience than was present. It included a cornet duet by Messrs. Walker and Northey; solo, "The Last Milestone," Mrs. Warner; reading, "Manhaught, the Indian Deacon," Miss Ellen Swift; solo, "Shepherd of the Fold," Miss Eva N. Roblin (obligato, Mr. James Creswell); reading, Mrs. J. P. Rice; violin solo, "Air Varla," Mr. James Creswell; solo, "The Promise of Life," Miss Eva N. Roblin; reading, "The College Oil Can," Mrs. J. C. Rice; solo, Mr. H. R. McDonald; reading, Miss Blenn Swift; solo, "Daddy," Mrs. Warner. The pastor of the church, Rev. Walter Rigby, presided.

INSURING CITY EMPLOYEES.

The regular meeting of the finance committee of the council was held last night. Ald. J. W. Jones, O. E. Brenner, George Armstrong, H. Dreaney, Mayor Little and Treasurer Pope being present. A memorandum from the council relating to the insurance of city employees under the Employers' Liability Act, occupied the attention of the committee for some time, and it was decided to call for separate tenders from the underwriters for the following classes of employees: Day laborers, fire department employees, and City Hall officials. A collective tender will also be called. D. L. Hardey applied for the renting of a portion of the East End Hall. The application was referred to the chairman to see Mr. Hardey in relation to the matter. Messrs. Helmut & Ivey, solicitors for the London Street Railway, notified the committee that the G. T. R. overhead bridge on the Wharncliffe road, South London, would require strengthening before the trolleys could cross it, and the city was asked to have the work done. The matter was laid over for further consideration. The taxes of Mrs. Nichol and Mrs. Cowan will be charged against their respective properties. John Maker's application to rent a room in the East End Hall for a social club was laid over. A communication from Brigadier Magenta, of the Salvation Army asked that the East End Hall be rented for Army purposes. The committee did not consider it advisable to do so, and the application was filed. The Police Council clerk's report showed the fines for October to be $90 75. Referred to the council. Accounts amounting to $3, 623 71 were ordered to be paid.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

THE WICKLOW POSTMAN TO-NIGHT.

Everybody does not go to the theater to laugh, even if some do not care for the more sombre plays. These same people do not object to a good hearty legitimate laugh, and it they come prepared to cry all the time, they must dry their tears when Eugene O'Rourke assisted by Roger Dolon, meet in the great prison scene in "The Wicklow Postman." They will cry immediately afterward, but in this particular scene no one can refrain from laughter. One car load of scenery, sixteen people, two stage carpenters, a leader and property man are required to produce Eugene O'Rourke's new "Wicklow Postman." All the extensive and expensive scenic and electrical effects have been bought outright, and Mr. O'Rourke has extensive use of some of the newest and most important discoveries in that line. The rain effect alone cost $3,000. "The Wicklow Postman," will be presented at the Grand to-night.

MONBARS.

"Monbars," the principal play by D'Ennery, which celebrated romantic actor, Robert Mantell, will present at the Grand Opera House on Tuesday night next, contains two of the strongest situations that occur in any play on the road today. One is in the first act, where Monbars saves a girl from a mad dog, and receiving a bite in the arm from the brute, he takes a red-hot poker and cauterizes the wound. Another is where he discovers (by the aid of a mirror) his would-be friend giving him a dose of poison; and then the duel which follows always arouses the audience to the wildest enthusiasm. "Monbars" is full of strong situations and a climax and is without doubt Mantell's best play. The costumes are said to be very gorgeous as the period is in the days of the First Empire. The company supporting Mr. Mantell is said to be exceptionally strong and special scenery will be used here.

TRILBY FOR LONDON.

Of all the works which Paul M. Potter has been the dramatizer of his "Trilby" is the greatest. It is great in more senses than one. It is great in that he outdone Du Maurier, the author of the great novel. He has done his work well. He has never before achieved a lighter, pleasanter excellence. He was in perfect accord with Du Maurier, caught absolutely the spirit of the book, knew thoroughly the characters, and made not a mistake in presenting them in action. His dramatization is unique in the sense that he departs slightly from the author in making Trilby leave Little Billies, not in a self-sacrificing way or because she promised to do so, but because she wants to. He puts the heroine completely under the mesmeric influence of Svengali, and if anything by so doing, improves the development of the plot. Considering the fact that A. H. Palmer has put one of his greatest companies in the piece, and that it is superbly staged by Wm. A. Brady, it should prove to be the most memorable production of the Grand Opera House, where it will be presented on Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday matinee, Nov. 8 and 9.

THE WISDOM OF GRAY HAIRS.

Rev. John Scott, D. D., of Hamilton, Ont., a Well-Known Retired Presbyterian Minister Has Used Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, and Testifies to Its Benefits.

The cautious conversation that is characteristic of Presbyterians, and especially those who have seen years of service in the church, gives weight and influence to any recommendation that they may make on almost any matter. When we find a clergyman of the years of the Rev. John Scott, D. D., of Hamilton, one of the church's most esteemed ministers, speaking favorably of a proprietary medicine, we may rest assured that it possesses genuine merit. Mr. Scott tells of the benefits that have come to him from the use of this medicine, because he is able to speak from an experimental knowledge, having used the medicine himself. Of its benefits he has testified over his own signature.

One short puff of the breath through the blower supplied with each bottle of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, diffuses this powder over the surface of the nasal passages. Painless and delightful to use, it relieves in ten minutes, and permanently cures Catarrh, Hay Fever, Colds, Headache, Sore Throat, Tonsillitis and Deafness. 50 cents. Sample bottle and blower sent on receipt of two 3-cent stamps. S. G. Detchon, 44 Church street, Toronto.

A man in Biddford, Me., who is 63 years old, is having troublesome times just now in cutting a wisdom tooth.
