The strike has held a serious effect on the distribution of Canadian and American foodstuffs. The quays are littered with huse quantities of bacon, cheese, lard and butter, which the dock hands prevent the carters handling.

The men detailed to relieve the crew at the location of the child had been at her side, but as she rushed out to learn his whereabouts the train stopped and the boy was pulled from beneath. Death was instantaneous.

An Awful Sight.

An iron plate used as a step on the bottom of the cow-catcher had apparently struck the child in the face, splitting the mouth in horrible fashion. No person witnessed the actual accident, the other children being in the yard at the time.

Latter Chided With Keeping Late Hours, Uses Revolver On Parent, It Is Said-Affair Creates Great Excitement.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, June 29.—With a bullet wound on the right side of the head. Solomon Lusser, button-maker, 55 years of age, was brought to the General Hospital at 2:30 o'clock this morning from his home, 1 Mount Charles Place, off St. Dominique street, He decused his son Harry, 24 years old, of having shot him. The son was taken into custody and locked up.

From what the police were able to learn at the hospital, the father and son had some words over the young man keeping late hours, and in the shot. The shooting, followed by the street of young Lusser, caused considerable excitement, and although it was almost daybreak a crowd gatherly defenced the son having shot him. The son was taken into custody and locked up.

"The measure proposed," said Senator Gamble, "is unjust, anfair, unrepublican, and is in violation of the declared and settled policy of the party for more than a generation. It seems to me, a serious blow to the American farmer, which places him in unequal competition with his Canadian rival, without any fair or just compensation."

without any fair or just compensation."

"I cannot persuade myself that in any sense this agreement follows the rule of our party faith, in the policy of either protection or reciprocity. As far as I am concerned, I cannot vote for its enactment or its ratification. Had it been proposed by the Opposition I could readily appreciate that it is in line somewhat with their sympathy and their policy."

Not Republican.

Senator Gamble pointed out that the measure had been passed both times in the House of Representatives, with a majority of the Republicans against it. "Under such conditions," he said, "It can hardly be claimed that this is a Republican measure as far as leg-
