A great many of those who sought Daughters of the Empire. enlistment last night were men who have seen active service previously. They included time expired army and navy men, most of whom had seen ser vice in the Boer war and other campaigns. These men probably will be the first choice of the Militia Department in making up the contingent.

The Other Units. The smaller local units, the Army Service Corps, Army Medical Corps, Field Ambulance Corps, Signalling Corps, Veterinary Corps and Postal Corps, have not commenced special enlistment yet, since, with fewer men to deal with, it will be a mater of considerably less time with them than with the others. The local contingent of the Postal Corps, while they have not received any notice up to the present that their services will be required, have been instructed by the director of postal service in Toronto, Major George Ross, to hold themselves in readiness in case of a call. At present they number only four, but it is proposed to recruit to about double that number.

All Occupants Were Thrown Out, But Escaped Injury.

[Special to The Advertiser.] PORT STANLEY, Aug. 7.-What might have been a very serious accident occurred last night on the road behind Orchard Beach. W. Stanton was driving Mrs. Manigault and daughter to their destination, Orchard Beach, and was halfway down one of the hills when an automobile appeared. The driver of the car immediately saw the wagon in front and put on his brakes. They, however, refused to work with the result that the automobile was precipitated right into the wagon, which was smashed to pieces. The Stanton boy and Mrs. and Miss Manigault were thrown out but were all uninjured The number of auto was 28735, Ont.
The sand flies are here in swarms. Telephone poles, electric lights and pavilions are literally covered, and the board walk also. Mr. Locke, of Port Stanley, spent the day in St. Thomas.
