Japanese Refuse the Pressmen the Use of Field Tele-

The Russians are now Reported Retiring From Advanced

Loudon, March 31.—The Daily Telegraph says the Japanese authorities have refused correspondents the use of the field telegraph lines, and that all despatches must be sent to Tokio by mail. The paper further says there is no sign that any foreigners will be permitted to go to the front, though the native newspaper men will be allowed to go. The Daily Telegraph in an editorial on the unprecedented severity of this censorship, suggests that Japan has some new and unprecedented move to conceal, possibly the re-embarkation of

A correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at Scoul, reports that the Russians are evacuating the positions they occupy in Korea. The Scotl corespondent of the Daily Mail describes. Korea outside the districts occupied by the Japanese as being in a state of anarchy and ready for a mebellion. The correspondent asserts that the censorship prevents any reference to local disturbanees.
